Majority Of Town Groups Will Be Represented At Testimonial Dinner Nov. 20

With the large majority of Gettysburg's more than 60 organizations already enrolled with from one to eight representatives, the community status of the dinner being tendered the state Centennial Commission at Hotel Gettysburg Tuesday evening, November 20, is assured.

Reservations and ticket sales are now over the 100 mark, which with individual members of the Chamber of Commerce, the Retail Merchants and the Travel Council, whose direct interest in the program which will be announced at the dinner assures their attendance, indicates that the 210 allotted tickets will be sold before Monday.

Personnel in the Travel Council office, who are handling ticket sales, are completing a check of the organizations in order to assure complete representation.

COMPLETE DETAILS

Officers of the three Gettysburg trade associations arranging the dinner are completing details of the program. In this connection it was stated:

"There has been an excellent response from the organizations that expresses a genuine interest and determination that the centennial programs of the battle and of Lincoln's address are going to enhance the prestige of Gettysburg and of the Civil War centennial observance generally.

"With the organizations represented by their responsible officers, the direct interest of individual business and professional people and motel operators and others concerned with travel assures a sellout.

SUPPORT COMMISSION

"The objective of the dinner is to convey to General Malcolm Hay and those associated with him on the state commission the appreciation of the community and to give unquestioned assurance that all Gettysburg is interested in the centennial programs and will support the commission in its determination that the centennial observances will reflect creditably upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the town that is custodian of one of the world's greatest shrines."

OTHERS BACK PROGRAM

Assurances of support and participation are being received from Civil War groups both north and south by the commission's subcommittee and military advisors. The Western Maryland Railway Company is completing decoration of its station for the commission offices. Heating has been installed in the former main waiting room.

LUTHERANS TO SELECT NEW CHURCH NAME

The York Springs Lutheran Church will vote Sunday on a new "spiritual name" for the church. This was decided by the Church Council at its meeting on Tuesday evening. Last month the members submitted in open balloting nominations for the name. The Council then selected eight from the many names submitted because they seemed to be "the most popular or the most appropriate." Those eight names selected, from which one will be chosen by the congregation are: Christ Lutheran Church, St. John's Lutheran Church, St. Mark's Lutheran Church, St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Our Redeemer Lutheran Church and Advent Lutheran Church.

This selection of a new name for the congregation is one of several adjustments the York Springs Lutheran Church is making as it prepares to study and adopt a constitution in relationship to the newly formed Lutheran Church in America. Although the York Springs Lutheran congregation has been in existence since approximately 1830, there is no record of a constitution ever having been adopted.

TO ELECT DEC. 16

At the same meeting, the Church Council took action to begin the Advent Season with an Advent Communion on Sunday, December 2, first Sunday in Advent.

Lt. Gov. Davis Will Speak At Exercises Here

The program observing the 99th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and the observance of Dedication Day, jointly sponsored by the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania and the Sons of Union Veterans, will be presented at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Gettysburg National Cemetery.

Lt. Gov. John Morgan Davis

will deliver the address. Raymond W. Bellamy, of Washington, D.C., will recite Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Mayor William G. Weaver will be master of ceremonies. A squad from the SUV will advance the colors and the Gettysburg High School band will play the Star Spangled Banner. Rev. John W. Vannorsdall, chaplain at Gettysburg College, will deliver the invocation and after another selection by the band memorial wreaths will be laid by Blaine R. Kitzmiller, son of a Union veteran, and Dr. Frederick Tilberg, past president of the Lincoln Fellowship.

HOWARD SMITH DIES SUDDENLY ON THURSDAY

J. Howard Smith, 68, Gettysburg R. 4, died Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Warner Hospital. He had been under a physician's care for some time and, having a severe pain in the back Thursday morning, was removed by ambulance to the hospital. He had seemed to be responding to medication and then suffered a relapse and death occurred.

A native of Towanda, he was born March 13, 1894. His father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Smith, Loysville, survive, as do his wife, the former Hilda Freeman; two daughters, Mrs. Julia Ruth, Mechanicsburg, and Mrs. Ester Stranad, Chevy Chase, Md.; a brother, Paul S. Smith, King of Prussia; a sister, Mrs. Louise Drehe, Mountain Home, Arizona; nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren. His mother, the former Rachael Orshaw, died many years ago.

He moved here in 1942 from New Jersey and for a time operated the Sunken Gardens Motel.

Castro Says He Will Shoot U.S. Reconnaissance Planes

By TOM HOGUE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Efforts to settle the Cuban crisis have been jolted by a threat from Fidel Castro to shoot down U.S. planes flying reconnaissance missions over Cuba.

The Cuban prime minister warned against the aerial surveillance in a letter to Acting Secretary-General U Thant. Thant disclosed the contents of the letter to U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson Thursday soon after Chief Cuban Delegate Carlos Lechuga delivered it.

Havana Radio said the letter warned:

"Any war plane which violates the sovereignty of Cuba by invading our air space will be able to do so only at the risk of being destroyed by our anti-aircraft defenses."

PRESSURE MOVE

Some diplomats viewed Castro's warning as a new attempt to pressure the United States into agreeing to the five demands the Cuban

LET CONTRACTS FOR NEW WING TO DELONE HI

Contracts were awarded today for the construction of a two-story addition to Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, to provide classroom and laboratory facilities for an additional 600 students. All three contracts were let to Hanover firms.

C. W. Test has been awarded the general contract. Plumbing and heating will be installed by Diller Wierman, Inc., and the electrical contract has been awarded to H. N. Bange. Total cost of construction and equipment will be $300,000, according to Rev. Fr. William R. Lyons, high school principal.

Work will be started within 10 days and will be completed by August 15, according to specifications of the contracts. The new wing will complete a four-sided structure around a center cur to provide a parking lot for students. It will be constructed of brick and glass and will include a four-room science department with labs and lecture rooms, and a five-room expandable commercial suite. A Sister's lounge and lavatories will be included in the plan.

The high school, which was established in 1940 by the late Attorney C. J. Delone, opened this year with an enrollment of 1,056 students. An increase to more than 1,600 is predicted by 1976, and the new structure is designed to meet the educational requirements of the additional enrollment, Rev. Fr. Lyons said.

NEW POST IS ANNOUNCED AT MUSSELMAN'S

An expansion in the Musselman sales organization accomplished in part through the addition of a general product manager was announced to brokers today by John A. Hauser, president of the Musselman Division of the Pet Milk Co., Biglerville. The announcement was made early this month to local management groups and will be released to national and trade publications next week.

The new post supplements the existing sales staff, Hauser said, in announcing the following personnel appointments which became effective November 15.

E. J. Yoder will continue active in the sales divisions consultant; Taylor A. Grossman will become general sales manager with responsibility for all sales personnel, including brokers and direct territories; Shelby A. Roberts Jr. will fill the newly created position of general product manager.

Yoder is one of Musselman's oldest employees in point of service, having joined the firm in 1925. He has served for the past 37 years.

TO ADDRESS CLUBS

Mrs. Helen Tunison, county extension home economist, will be the speaker Monday evening at a joint "Farm City" right meeting to be held at the Lamp Post Tea Room at 6:30 o'clock by the Kiwanis Club and the Business and Professional Women's Club. The meeting will be a "ladies' night" for the Kiwanians and a "gentlemen's night" for the Business and Professional group. Wayne Cluck of the committee from Kiwanis planning the event said.

SAYS COUNTY IS WINNING SPURS AS DAIRYLAND

Adams County, recognized for years as outstanding in fruit, poultry and livestock, is now also becoming known as an important dairy county, County Agent Frank Zettie said Thursday night at the 49th annual meeting of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association, held at the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

"The herds in the county Dairy Herd Improvement Association are now among the top five DHIA units in the state," he said "and within the last two or three years our herds have become known as a source of outstanding foundation breeding stock. The dairy program carried out by your extension service, plus the skill of our dairy farmers, has brought about this significant improvement of the dairy industry in the county."

He also commented that the program carried on cooperatively with the Tennessee Valley Authority and seven fertilizer test demonstration farms in the county over the last five years had "aided in some significant improvements in the county. From 1957 to 1961 the number of complete soil test analysis used by farmers in the county has doubled and alfalfa production has increased 60 per cent. These are merely two of the more obvious contributions of the fertilizer test demonstration program."

Mrs. Tunison reports that during the year a complete soil analysis was made on 811 farms and 795 lime requirement tests were made. The association conducted during the year 172 agriculture meetings at which attendance was 14,000.

FESTIVAL TO CLIMAX WORLD FELLOWSHIP

The observance of the YWCA World Fellowship Week will be culminated by an international festival by Y-Teens with the cooperation of YW members. The festival will be held Saturday in the Hotel Gettysburg pressroom from 1 to 8 p.m. with admission 35c for adults and 25c for children.

The Y-Teens will have decorated booths with food representative of the countries they have selected and games for children of all ages. A few of the interesting things to see will be an igloo, a Roman feast and Japanese tea house.

There will be many items for sale which could be used for Christmas gifts. Examples are international cookbooks, notepaper, handwoven linens and inexpensive crafts of the world.

A special display of articles from many countries can be seen which was loaned by the following residents: Mrs. Thomas Hay Nixon, Dr. Erika Theobald, Mrs. Norman T. Richardson, Miss Hilda Hull, Mrs. D. L. Radsma, Mrs. Mary Lazos, Mrs. John Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Enggren, Miss Lida Dunkelberger, Mrs. Arthur Rice.

A coffee lounge and special entertainment featuring a fashion show are other attractions of the festival.

The proceeds will be used to expand YWCA work in the world.

Blue, Gray Band To Plan For 1963

The Blue and Gray Band will hold its usual rehearsal Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the VFW Home, East Middle St.

In conjunction with the rehearsal, a short business meeting will be held when a decision will be made on the winter schedule of rehearsals, new or different repertoire and a discussion of the 1963 agenda of the band.

Members not planning to be active with the band in 1963 are asked to bring in their uniforms and any instruments or equipment belonging to the band.

Charles Duffield and officers of the band request citizens of Gettysburg and vicinity who may have musical instruments no longer in use, to donate or lend them to the band. The bandsmen are trying to build up the membership of the band. Age, sex or race are no bar to membership in the band, the officers said. Teen-age members are restricted in their access to the club facilities, officers said.

DEACONESS TO SPEAK SUNDAY AT FAIRFIELD

The annual thank offering service for Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield, will be marked this Sunday at 10:30 a.m. with Sister Elizabeth Warstler of the Baltimore Deaconess School, speaking on "A Fitting Acknowledgment of God's Favor."

The vicar, Carl Franklin, will serve as liturgist and the pastor, Rev. Otto Kroeger, will introduce the speaker. The Senior choir, under the direction of M. Helen McClell, will sing the anthem, "O Give Thanks," accompanied by the church organist, Mabel G. Bream.

At 3 p.m. Sister Warstler will be honored with a reception and tea when she will meet the members of the Lutheran Churchwomen of Zion and speak briefly to the girls in the Luther League.

4 TO GRADUATE

Four Adams Countyans are among the class of 50 who will receive degrees at the fall commencement exercises at Shippensburg State College Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

They are Jude T. Smith, McSherrystown; Gayle L. Gulden, Biglerville; Allen B. Kistler, Gettysburg; and Donald W. McIntire, Fairfield R. 1.

K. W. LEISTER TO HEAD SCOUT UNIT NEARBY

Kenneth W. Leister was elected chairman of Coneago Boy Scout District and six leaders were honored for outstanding services at the annual Ladies' Night meeting Thursday evening in the Harold H. Bair Post 14, American Legion home, Hanover. About 160 persons attended.

Leister succeeds John W. Furniss, who has moved from the community. Named vice chairmen were: Jack Housman, Harry D. Berger and Dr. James R. Miller. Carroll F. Boyer was renamed district commissioner.

Honored for outstanding services to the district were: Mrs. Bernice Pitts and Mrs. Eliza Campbell, both of Pack 110, First Methodist Church, Hanover; Mrs. Kathryn Lowe, Pack 126, Hanover Church of the Brethren; C. P. Keefer, district executive board; Lawrence H. Cummins, district committee, and Paul Shaffer, Pack 104, Trinity United Church of Christ, Hanover.

The women were presented with commemorative serving trays and the men with Scouting belts by Paul E. Aumen, chairman of the selection committee.

AWARDS PRESENTED

1,600 Turkeys Scatter As Big Truck Hits Farm Tractor

Sixteen hundred turkeys scattered through the York Springs area Thursday afternoon when a tractor-trailer loaded with the birds struck a farm tractor on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd. and overturned.

State police said Edward L. Stewart, 44, Clover R. 1, S.C., was driving a tractor-trailer loaded with the live turkeys north when his vehicle ran into the rear of a farm tractor and homemade trailer operated north by Wilmer E. Miller, 35, York Springs R. 2.

The tractor-trailer overturned on the road blocking both lanes of traffic and releasing 1,600 of the turkeys. About 100 of the gobblers were killed in the crash.

The farm tractor ran off the side of the road and hit a guard rail. Both drivers were injured, Stewart suffering bruises of the

Issue Warning On Lightless Bikes

Gettysburg borough police today reminded bicyclists that it is illegal to ride bikes at night without a light on the front and a reflector on the rear.

The early darkness is "catching" a number of bicycle riders on the streets without lights after dark, the officers said.

Because of the danger to both cyclist and motorists, as well as to the pedestrian crossing the street, police said they will begin arresting those who ride after dark without lights.

HARRY BUCHER, BIGLERVILLE, EXPIRES AT 84

Harry C. Bucher, 84, well-known resident of Biglerville, died at the Warner Hospital Thursday evening at 5:55 o'clock after having been a patient there for five weeks and five days.

He was native of Franklin Twp. and was a son of the late Daniel D. and Harriet Raffensperger Bucher. He was a butcher most of his life. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Biglerville.

Mr. Bucher helped organize the Biglerville Fire Company and served for a number of years as its chief. He was a member of a committee that built the Warner Hospital more than 40 years ago.

For several years during the Earle administration, he was an employee of the state Department of Health.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN SPRING RALLIES HERE

Two spring rallies will probably be held in the Apple Valley District of the Girl Scouts, made up of the Adams County and Hanover units, Mrs. Clyde Kennedy of the Juliette Low committee reported Thursday night at a meeting of the Gettys-Treford Girl Scout Neighborhood at York Springs Elementary School.

Because of the large number of girls involved, preliminary plans call for the Adams County neighborhoods to hold their spring rally during Girl Scout Week in Gettysburg and for the Hanover neighborhoods to hold their rally in Hanover, since neither borough has facilities large enough to handle all the girls expected to participate. The preliminary planning calls for use of an international theme for the rallies with girls participating in costumes. A new movie entitled "Journey Into Friendship" will be available for showing. Mrs. Kennedy also suggested that a long term goal be set up to have a Senior Girl Scout from the Apple Valley District qualify for participation in an international Girl Scout rally.

RIDINGER'S LEAD TAKES JUMP OF 25

Harry D. Ridinger, Republican nominee for assemblyman from Adams County, gained 25 votes this morning when the official count was made at the courthouse of the 92 military ballots mailed to the county election board.

There were 92 military votes, of which 33 were cast for Democratic candidate Attorney Eugene Hartman, 58 for Ridinger and one for Arthur Gordon. The result gave Ridinger a 35-vote lead over Hartman. Of the ballots cast 52 were straight Republican, 15 straight Democratic and 25 split.

This afternoon the board was counting 158 "absentee" ballots sent in by civilians from the county who could not be here for the election.

At the conclusion of the unofficial count early on the morning of November 7, Ridinger was 51 votes ahead of Attorney Hartman.

When the official count began last Friday an error was discovered in the Biglerville tally and the Biglerville election board was called in Saturday to recount the ballots cast there. The official count showed one more vote for Hartman in Latimore Twp. The Biglerville recount gave Hartman two more votes and took 38 from Ridinger's total, thus reducing Ridinger's lead to 10.

This morning, with the military count, Ridinger's lead began to rise again.

The closeness of the race brought a large number of watchers to the tabulation made by County Commissioners Charles B. Bender and Clarence J. Waybright and tellers Luther Lady and Edward Stine. Among them were County Democratic Chairman Fred G. Klunk, Pennsylvania Young Democrats' President Gilbert Lupp, County Democratic Campaign Chairman William B. Tipton and Prothonotary Herbert Miller. On the Republican side were John B. Keith and Attorney Donald M. Swope. Attorney Donald Oyer was on hand for the commissioners.

TO OCCUPY NEW SR. HS BUILDING END OF MONTH

The Gettysburg High School faculty was told Thursday afternoon at an after school session by Superintendent H. Edgar Riegler that the Senior high students and faculty will make the move into the new high school building November 29 and 30.

That schedule will be carried out, Supt. Riegler said, if work remaining to be done in the new building is completed within the time expected. The moving days also will be affected by the weather. The complicated shifts of pupils, faculty, furniture and supplies will not be attempted in a deluge or a blizzard, he indicated.

The final inspection of the new structure was made Thursday morning and afternoon by school officials and representatives of the architect, all of the primary contractors and some of the subcontractors. The report on the inspection was that "things are in pretty good shape; although a few things remain to be finished, there is no major task yet undone."

GET TOUR FIRST

According to present plans, on November 29 the students and faculty will be taken on tours of inspection of the new building to show them the location of their home-rooms, shops, laboratories, library, cafeteria, locker rooms and other facilities. The actual moving will take place on November 30.

Senior high students and their teachers will move into the new building and Seventh Graders will vacate the Lincoln School building December 4 and move into the present high school building which will be known as the junior high school from then on. There will be much shifting of home rooms (Continued On Page 2)

GET DRAFT CALL

The Adams County Selective Service Board today received notice to send one man for induction into the armed forces on December 13. No call has been received so far for men for pre-induction physical examinations in December.

YOUTH CENTER BENEFIT

COURT UPSETS
1 SUSPENSION;
UPHOLDS 2ND

The Adams County court this morning handed down two opinions, one revoking the state's suspension of the operator's license of Harry Wilmer Bowers, Gettysburg R. 1, and the other sustaining the state's suspension of the driving license of Herbert L. Nichols, Littlestown R. 1.

According to the opinion of the court, Bowers was driving north on the Littlestown Rd. following a tractor-trailer car carrier. As the vehicles began to ascend Cemetery Hill to the south of Gettysburg, Bowers overtook and passed the car carrier in front of him, completing the pass some distance before arriving at the crest of the hill. A state policeman who had been following Bowers on regular patrol for about two miles brought the bad pass charge against him and as a result his operator's license was suspended by the state.

The court's opinion noted that a single solid yellow line in the center of the highway begins 1,215 feet south of the crest of the hill "from which point a motorist would have an unobstructed view of the highway for a distance of 1,246 feet." The single line continues for 359 feet to the point where the battlefield avenue intersects Rt. 140 from the east. The line is broken for the avenue, then continues as a double yellow line over the crest of the hill.

SUSPENSION REVOKED

The trooper testified, according to the opinion, that Bowers began his pass 50 feet south of the avenue, or 906 feet south of the crest of the hill. Bowers claimed he began the pass about 1,400 feet south of the crest of the hill and completed it at the lower driveway to the cemetery, "which would have been more than 750 feet from the crest of the hill."

According to the court, "from the testimony and our knowledge of the location we cannot find that Bowers overtook or passed another vehicle when approaching the crest of the hill where his view along the highway was obstructed within a distance of 500 feet ahead."

RADAR UPHELD

In the opinion on the Nichols case the court held that Nichols was arrested for driving a truck tractor and semi-trailer near the Cashtown intersection on the Lincoln Highway at a speed of 60 miles per hour in a 40-mile per hour zone. Nichols had previously been arrested for driving at 75 miles per hour in a 65-mile per hour zone in Indiana.

The court held that the technical questions concerning the use of radar raised by Nichols in seeking to have the court void the suspension of his operator's license were "without merit."

The court found that he was subject to suspension of his license and "that the secretary of revenue did not abuse his discretion." The court dismissed the appeal and directed Nichols to pay the costs.

TRADING MODERATE

IN DEATH OF AGED WIDOW

READING, Pa. (AP) — A 45-year-old man with a police record has been charged with murder, robbery and rape in the death of a 71-year-old destitute widow.

The man, Matt Givans, was held without bail Thursday night. Detective Capt. John Feltman said Givans admitted he killed Mrs. Helen A. Ehrmann, whose body was found Wednesday in a laundromat.

Givans is a Negro.

Mrs. Ehrmann was white. Authorities said Mrs. Ehrmann apparently had been sleeping in the laundromat for the last four or five days. They said her home had been sold for back taxes.

Authorities had disclosed earlier that an autopsy showed Mrs. Ehrmann died of asphyxiation and suffocation but it did not show any rape.

Detective Capt. John Feltman said Givans went into the laundromat with an iron bar with the intention of breaking into a pay telephone to get money for wine when he found Mrs. Ehrmann there.

Feltman said Givans tore the woman's dress, rammed her hat into her mouth to gag her and tried unsuccessfully to rape her.

Feltman said Givans found only two pairs of glasses in the woman's purse which he took with him. He said Givans went across the street and later returned to the laundromat. As the woman lay moaning on the floor, Givans molested her, Feltman said.

MOVE TO SOLVE
COUNCIL SPLIT

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Steps were taken in the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council today to compromise a major split over a theological issue considered crucial to efforts for Christian unity.

The dispute, over a thesis on the sources of divine revelation, had brought so-called conservative and progressive elements in the council into direct conflict.

But in today's closed meeting in St. Peter's, a spokesman said, proposals were made to create a study group composed of council fathers of the two tendencies to find a point of agreement that would take into account the different views heard in the past two council sessions.

The thesis, which deals with scriptures and tradition as sources of the revealed word of God, was drafted by a commission headed by Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, considered a leading conservative.

When it first came up, some council fathers supported it. Others suggested that it be shelved. A third group wanted an entirely new text.

The three views appeared to have narrowed to two today. There was no sign of further requests to shelve the matter. Instead, a spokesman said, prelates spoke from two viewpoints—those who want a new text and those who want to stick to the present draft.

TIMES WRITERS
DISCUSS NEED FOR AREA NEWS

A workshop luncheon of five Gettysburg Times correspondents Thursday in the Hotel Gettysburg indicated that the growing communities of Adams County demand greater news coverage in their local newspaper.

The expanding areas in every segment of the county, prompted by new home construction throughout the county, has brought increased community activity and an unprecedented need for news coverage.

Borough councils, school boards, PTAs and service and civic groups throughout the county are rendering vital services in their communities that have not been required in previous years. Public interest in these activities has increased with the increase in population.

DISCUSS PROBLEMS

Discussing these and other problems of news coverage were: Mrs. John Leeti, Biglerville and upper communities correspondent; Mrs. Flora Leister, Taneytown; Mrs. Kenneth Sanders, Fairfield; Miss Joy Metz, Mt. Hope and Virginia Mills; and Mrs. Luther Wetzel, Orrtanna. Correspondents who were unable to attend the workshop are: Mrs. Florence Wilson, Mummastown; Mrs. Della Butt, Abbottstown; Mrs. Ralph Long, Emmitsburg; Mrs. Lester Bowman, McSherrystown; Mrs. F. E. Coulson, York Springs; Mrs. Cloyd Miller, Bonneauville, and Miss Delores Hawk, Littlestown.

Last month Times correspondents supplied 125 columns of community news. This is equivalent to 15½ pages of copy. Items ranged from personals to community activities, and from storms to other disasters. Correspondents are responsible for reporting to the newsroom in Gettysburg all issues of interest to the public from their communities.

The accomplishments of community groups reflect progress of Adams County and encourage individual participation in local affairs for the improvement of the entire area and Times correspondents are qualified to give accurate and complete accounts of such accomplishments.

HAS SERVED 43 YEARS

Mrs. Luther Wetzel has been a correspondent in the Orrtanna area for 43 years and has supplied much interesting information from that community. She and her husband will celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary December 7. She has been a life-long member of the Mt. Carmel UB Church and Sunday School, and served as church and Sunday School organist for many years. She is an active member of the WWSW and missionary societies of her church and has always been interested in music. Mrs. Wetzel is considered the dean of the Times correspondents and hopes to complete 45 years of service as a Times representative.

One of the youngest Times correspondents is Miss Joy Metz who took over the job while she was in high school after the death of her mother, who had been the newspaper's representative in the Mt. Hope-Virginia Mills area. While the community is sparsely populated, Miss Metz is able to cover the activities along with a full-time job in a Gettysburg insurance office.

Mrs. Kenneth Sanders has been the Fairfield representative for two years. Wife of the town's mayor and the mother of two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Sanders is active in school, church, scout and community affairs. She is president of the band auxiliary. She was a secretary prior to her marriage and is alert to all activities of the growing community surrounding Fairfield.

COVERS TANEYTOWN

Mrs. Flora Leister, a widow for the past 16 years, became a Times correspondent in 1955 after The Times rented office space in her large Taneytown home for use during the bi-centennial observance there. Unable to resist the excitement of the newspaper business, Mrs. Leister agreed to represent her community for The Times, and has extended coverage to Harney, Keyville and other state-line areas. She and her late husband, who was a prominent inn keeper and restaurateur, lived in a house on the location of an historical inn where General George Washington stayed on one of his trips to the area. Mrs. Leister, a student of local history, is proud to own the original door through which Washington passed.

Mrs. John Leeti, Biglerville, has the responsibility of the entire upper end of the county from Cashtown to Idaville and Gardners. She provides a daily column of upper community news. A former civil service secretary, she has been a Times correspondent since the birth of her son, Alan, seven years ago.

WIDE VARIETY OF HABITS IN TV VIEWING

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP)—One of the most widely used statistics concerning television is the estimate that the "average" set is in use a little more than five hours a day. It is a misleading one.

Studies of its audience samples by the Nielsen Research organization, however, lead to a conclusion that the nation's "heaviest viewers"—who account for about 38 per cent of the total viewing hours—have their sets on for about 10 hours during an average day.

But on the other end of the spectrum are the so-called "light" viewers—those families who use their sets on a daily average of an hour or less a day.

The "heavy" viewing families, Nielsen finds, consist importantly of large, young, middle-income families—five and more—in large cities. (The 10 hours, therefore, is presumed to be split up among the various members of the family, ranging from the young to the older adults.)

The "light" viewers are smaller families and about evenly split between heavily populated centers and more sparsely settled areas. Almost half are in the low income groups, and one important quarter, upper income.

PIDGEON TO BE GUEST

The "Perry Mason Show" has signed Walter Pidgeon for an episode as guest-lawyer during Raymond Burr's four-show absence for surgery.

Actor Basil Rathbone, the most recent nonwriter with an autobiography to plug, has been signed for NBC's "Play Your Hunch" and will undoubtedly be seen around on lots of other shows drumming up Christmas sales.

The conversation and game shows nowadays seem almost completely inhabited by celebrities with records, books or upcoming specials to advertise.

STUDENTS AT
ON WILD BRAWL

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—Three Lafayette College students were charged with disorderly conduct after a wild brawl climaxing a football rally Thursday night. Police said it was the most riotous display of its kind in 30 years.

A crowd of students attended a bonfire-pep session prefacing Saturday's traditional game between Lafayette and Lehigh University here.

But boisterous spirits weren't spent at the rally. The students trooped into the center of town where tinsel festooned on the Soldiers and Sailors Monument as part of early Christmas decorations proved too tempting. They set about tangling and twisting the tinsel.

FRESHMAN FINED

Police on duty were unable to cope with the situation. When reinforcement came the collegians were shooed back toward the campus, on top of a hill. As the police tried to keep them moving, however, the students let fly with stones and bottles. Firemen finally put an end to it with water sprayed from pumps.

One of the three students arrested, 18-year-old Edward Marsh Jr., a freshman, from Greensburg, Pa., pleaded guilty in police court today to the disorderly conduct charge and was fined $300 and $9 costs, which he paid.

DHIA BANQUET ON SATURDAY IN NEW OXFORD

A ribbon for the first Adams County herd ever to achieve a 600-pound of butterfat average will be among awards presented Saturday at the annual dinner of the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association at 12 noon in the New Oxford fire hall.

The ribbon award for the "600-pound herd" is to be given by the Pennsylvania Dairyman's Association, Associate County Agent Duane Duncan said.

Eight trophies will also be presented: For the five top herds in the county, for the herd showing the greatest increase for the cow with the highest percentage of butterfat produced during the year and for the cow producing the largest amount of milk during the year.

Owners of some 87 cows will receive certificates for having animals which have achieved 3,000, 4,000 or 5,000 pounds of butterfat production in their lifetime of milk production.

TO GIVE CERTIFICATES

William Johnston, extension dairy marketing specialist from Pennsylvania State University, will speak on "Latest Developments in Milk Marketing."

Annual summary reports will be given to the herd owners at the session and directors will be elected for the coming year.

Duncan said 125 have signed to attend the dinner meeting.

The names of the top herds, the "600-pound herd" and other winners will not be announced until the session Saturday, Duncan added.

Adam Lobaugh, president of the association, will preside at the meeting.

Whittling To Be Topic For Guild

Mrs. Urie Lutz, Carlisle, will speak on "Whittling, Painting and Arranging Birds" at Monday evening's meeting of the Adams County Arts and Crafts Guild in the Adams Electric Cooperative building at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Rosemary Starkins, corresponding secretary for the guild, said hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Carl Oyler, Mrs. Alma Keeney and Mrs. Marjorie Schuh.

She also announced that the Christmas meeting of the group will be held Monday, December 17, at 6:30 p.m. with a covered dish supper and exchange of Christmas ideas. Members of the association were reminded there will be an art exhibit in Christ Chapel, Gettysburg College, November 26 through December 15.

Big Vegetables Are Grown At Orrtanna

His friends are claiming for Calvin Lochbaum the turnip producing championship, at least of Orrtanna R. D. where he resides. Lochbaum has produced this year approximately 12 bushels of turnips measuring from 18 to 22 inches in circumference. He also has produced a large number of smaller turnips.

In the potato line he has also done well — producing a four-pound sweet potato.

PAIR FINED

Michael Smith, Washington, D.C., and Brian Callahan, Manhasset, N.Y., Thursday night paid fines and costs on a disorderly conduct charge brought by borough police before Justice of the Peace Anna Thompson.

Wedding

Seltzer-Hull

Miss Patricia Belle Hull, Hagerstown, granddaughter of Mrs. Lottie B. Seaman, Hagerstown, became the bride of Thomas William Seltzer, Thurmont R. 2, son of Mrs. Alma G. Seltzer and the late Ernest T. Seltzer, Thurmont, in St. Anthony's Shrine, Emmitsburg, Saturday at 10 a.m. The nuptial mass and double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leo C. Wetzel, cousin of the bridegroom, before an altar decorated with white pompons and candelabra.

The matron of honor was Mrs. James Otto, Thurmont R. 2, cousin of the bridegroom. The bridesmaid was Miss Sharon D. Knode, Hagerstown, cousin of the bride. Carl Wetzel, Thurmont R. 2, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were James Otto and Michael Lingg, both of Thurmont R. 2. Mrs. Louis Rosensteel, Emmitsburg, was the organist. Soloist was Mrs. Bernard Frazier. Altar boys were Daniel Lind Jr. and George Sanders Jr.

A reception was held in the parish hall. After the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Boston, Mass. For traveling the bride chose a three-piece knitted suit of brown wool, with brown accessories, with a corsage of yellow tea roses.

The bride is a graduate of South Hagerstown High School and was employed by Doubleday and Co., in Smithsburg. The bridegroom graduated from St. Joseph's High School, Emmitsburg, and is employed in the Cavetown Planing Mill, Cavetown, Md.

Luncheon Held By Mental Health Unit

The Adams County Mental Health Association met for luncheon at the Lamp Post Tea Room Thursday at noon with 14 members and guests present. Mrs. W. W. Wood, president, presided, and Dr. Paul L. Reaser gave the invocation.

Guests were Mrs. Donald R. Heiges and Miss Nancy Heltsel and Miss Loretta Helwig, members of a psychology class at Gettysburg College. Mrs. Donald E. Myers, membership chairman, announced six new members. Dr. C. P. Keefe reported for the library committee.

Mrs. Henry T. Bream, program chairman, presented a tentative six-month program set up by her and the Rev. Otto Kroeger, which was adopted. The documentary film, "The Angry Boy," was shown by the Rev. John R. Bishop and discussion by the group followed.

Christmas Poster Prizes December 23

The awards for the annual "Keep Christ in Christmas" poster contest being held in the parochial schools will be given December 23, according to reports presented at Wednesday evening's meeting of the Catholic War Veterans at Boonewauville. Winners in the contest will be notified to be present at the CWV home for the presentation of the awards.

Further plans were announced for the 15th annual banquet of the CWV to be held November 24 at 7 p.m. at the American Legion home, Gettysburg. The state commander of the CWV will be among the speakers.

Harvey Lee was appointed judge advocate by Commander Joseph Clabaugh. Plans were announced to hold the annual Christmas party at the post home December 23.

It was announced that the color guard took part on November 12 in Veterans Day services held at Lebanon Veterans Administration Hospital, and that a district meeting will be held at Mechanicsburg December 2 at 2 p.m.

FIND GIRLS BODY

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — The nude body of a young girl was found today on a public dump in Pittston Township. It was not determined immediately whether the girl was murdered or died accidentally.

The body was concealed under several large logs and branches of cherry trees. It lay just over the edge of an embankment in what was a former coal-stripping area. It was approximately 25 feet from Norman street, an unpaved road leading into the dump and stripping area.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy met with his top military and diplomatic advisers today amid evidence that the Cuban crisis may be moving into a new and more dangerous period.

In a White House conference with the executive committee of the National Security Council, Kennedy was believed to have discussed Premier Fidel Castro's threat to fire on U. S. reconnaissance planes over Cuba.

Even before the meeting, however, authorities said basic U. S. policy on this point had been decided more than two weeks ago. On October 27, they noted, the Defense Department said that any action against U. S. aircraft keeping security watch on Cuba would be met with "counter action."

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI said today Bobby Randall Wilcoxson and Albert F. Nussbaum, accused bank robbers, were responsible for Washington's "mad bomber" scare of 1961.

The two men, captured this month, had detonated two bombs in Washington and planted a third as diversionary tactics for their bank-robbing campaign, the FBI said.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The mammoth Saturn rocket, intended in its later development to ferry astronauts to the moon, scored its third straight test-flight success today.

With its gigantic eight-engine power plant carrying a full load of fuel for the first time, the world's largest known rocket thundered away from its launch pad at 12:45 p.m. on a brief flight of less than five minutes. Only the first stage was fired.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced today that President Kennedy will make a fact finding tour of Air Force and Atomic Energy Commission sites on Dec. 7.

CLUB TO MEET

The Adams County 4-H Baby Beef Club will meet Wednesday evening at the Adams Electric Cooperative Building, rear of N. Stratton St., Associate County Agent Duane Duncan has announced. Bobby and Benjy Conover and Danny and Thomas Garner are scheduled to present demonstrations on calf work at the meeting. Members who sold calves at Thomasville are asked to bring their project books to the extension office by Monday.

Pastor To Speak At Banquet Here

Rev. Charles A. Hammond, Hellam, pastor of Kreutz Creek Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker Saturday night at the 36th annual Past Commanders and Past Presidents Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania Dedication Day dinner at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Ivan Frantz, York, of the committee in charge of the event, said Rev. Mr. Hammond will speak on "The Unfinished Work!" The talk will deal, he said, "with the continuing tension between the North and South, remembering the words of Lincoln concerning the purpose of the conflict and hoping that the purpose will be completed in our lifetime."

Rev. Mr. Hammond, a graduate of Occidental College and Princeton Theological Seminary, has been pastor of Kreutz Creek Church since 1958. He is a member of the Hellam Planning Commission, the York County Ministerium and other church and local civic organizations. He is working toward his doctor's degree in American church history.

Fierce Fighting Raging As Chinese Reds Launch Massive Attack On India

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Chinese Communists have launched a massive attack on Indian troops at the east end of the Himalayas and fierce fighting is now going on, a Defense Ministry spokesman said today.

The Chinese attack on Indian positions near Walong followed an Indian attack that captured some Chinese outposts, the spokesman said. After restricted fighting in one area which began Wednesday, the Red Chinese attacked on a massive scale north and west of Walong, he said.

Chinese troops are attacking in considerably superior numbers, the spokesman said.

TAKE 2,500 SQ. MILES

No other action was reported on the Himalayan battle front. The Walong attack was the first since fighting since the offensive into India ground to a temporary halt three weeks ago after capture of some 2,500 square miles.

The spokesman said the Red Chinese around Walong had not advanced when last reports came in shortly before he talked to reporters.

The Chinese attack was triggered, he said, by a new Indian army policy of probing Red Chinese lines in an effort to keep them from consolidating their positions. This policy is also now being followed near Towang, where the other major thrust by the Chinese has penetrated into northeastern India.

DANGEROUS AREA

The Walong thrust, 15 miles west of the Burma border, is potentially one of the most dangerous of 13 Red Chinese penetrations into India.

Walong lies in the valley of the Lohit River that forms a natural highway down through the mountains to the densely populated plains of upper Assam State.

Indian troops attacked Red Chinese positions a few miles northwest of Walong in the jumbled slopes of the lower Himalayas. A spokesman said "our troops were able to occupy the forward slopes of the Chinese position in spite of heavy enemy fire."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Counts Cars From 21 States

Sunday: A count of cars passing the south gate of the National cemetery from two to four o'clock Sunday afternoon by M. W. Stansbury, Baltimore Street, showed 464 autos from 21 states. In addition to the Pennsylvania cars there were 108 from Maryland, 15 from Virginia, 24 from New Jersey, 24 from New York, 18 from Ohio, five from Indiana, four from Illinois, two from Iowa, nine from District of Columbia, one each from New Hampshire, North Carolina and Arizona; two each from Missouri, Rhode Island, California and Massachusetts; six from Michigan, five from West Virginia, four from Delaware and three from Connecticut.

Former Resident Visits Friends Here: George Alexander Buehler, San Diego, retired veteran of 30 years' service in the U. S. Navy and son of the late Luther M. Buehler, who for many years operated Buehler's Drug store here, stopped in Gettysburg Sunday on a vacation trip to the east. The Buehler family left here in 1913 and went to Ventnor, N. J., later going to Atlantic City, where George Buehler enlisted in the navy. He served in both World Wars.

Buehler's Drug store was located on the present site of the City Market, Chambersburg St., for more than 50 years.

Death: William W. Mauss, 65, alderman in the tenth ward there, died at 7:45 a.m. Friday at the Hanover General hospital after a three-week confinement. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary C. Pohlman Mauss, to whom he was married 42 years; two brothers, John Mauss, of Gettysburg, and James Mauss, of York, and two sisters, Mrs. Milton Sleight, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. John Guss, of Philadelphia.

Nominate 2 For Commander Of A. J. Lentz Post: Glenn Rafenberger and Marvin Socia were nominated for commander of the Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion at a regular meeting of the organization Monday evening at the post home. Other nominations included: First vice commander, Alexis Chritzman; second vice commander, William Conover and Leonard Shealer; adjutant, William T. Timmins Jr., and Paul Fox; finance officer, John Reinacker and James Howe; chaplain, Howard Strausbaugh; historian, Paul Spangler; sergeant-at-arms, Charles Fridinger, Thomas Zeigler, Vincent Florence and Druid C. Deitch.

Takes Course In Internal Medicine: Dr. C. H. Johnson left Sunday evening for Pittsburgh where he will take a two weeks' course in internal medicine at the University of Pittsburgh medical center. The course is sponsored by the American College of Physicians. While in Pittsburgh Doctor Johnson will also attend the meetings of the Pennsylvania Society of clinical pathologists.

Today's Talk

PEOPLE WHO SCATTER

I once read a line that made a great impression upon my mind. I have quoted it before. It was that when a great man died, he left an afterglow far into the night! I have known people whose personalities were so vibrant that you actually felt their presence — long after their leaving you. Such a personality was that of our 26th President of the U.S.A. — "Teddy" Roosevelt. It will never be entirely eliminated from the world. I still hear he said again and again: "If T. R. were living!" Here was a man who scattered himself over a world. I have in mind a good friend who keeps sending cheerful things that he has clipped from publications, here and there, and through this means he is all the time extending something of himself.

You never know where a thought is going to end. To my notion, "Don Quixote" has always been one of the greatest books ever written. And it was written in jail! But Cervantes was a man whom no jail could hold. Written many hundreds of years ago — his book is as fresh in interest as though written yesterday.

People who scatter of themselves really never die. Their thoughts and personalities enrich ages and enhance human worth all along the paths of Time. When we think too much about our own troubles and petty worries, we shrink — but the minute we begin to give thought to, and encouragement to others we ourselves enlarge and grow happy. We do not matter so much, in ourselves, but what we send out and scatter to the four winds, matters a great deal.

Edward Everett Hale left a great line: "Look up, not down. Lend a hand."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Will To Go On."

Just Folks

LIFE AND A GARDEN

Man's life is like a garden plot.

'Tis shaped and fashioned by his will,

Enforce a blossom can be got

The soil he first must seed and till,

If tulips in the spring shall grow

In beauty round about his door,

They must be planted row by row

In autumn of the year before.

Who would have roses first must make

The bed where roses thrive and grow.

Gardens display what pains we take

And what we have the will to sow.

Who looks for fruit must plant the tree,

The ground neglected runs to weeds.

Who would have friends a friend must be

Long years before their help he needs.

RIFT GROWING BETWEEN TWO U.S. LIBERALS

By WILLIAM BENDER

NEW YORK (AP)—A rift is growing between two long-time allies within the American liberal movement—organized labor and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The association, the nation's largest Negro rights organization, has set its sights on eliminating what it contends is discrimination within the labor field.

Labor, in turn, contends that the association's attack—or at least the attack by some of its officials—is indiscriminate and its charges too broad. Some labor leaders do acknowledge that a few unions still do not grant equal opportunity to all members.

METHODS AND ISSUES

The controversy seems to revolve as much around methods and personalities as it does around the issues.

In the middle stands the association's outspoken national labor secretary, Hebert Hill, 37, a New Yorker, a white man.

Hill, a graduate of the trade union movement who came to the association in 1947 as a mediator between it and labor, is the architect of the new policy of toughness toward labor.

Lurking in the background is an unemployment crisis Hill says the Negro wage earner is now experiencing. Since March 1958, he says, the rate of Negro unemployment has been more than twice that of white workers.

HAVE BEEN IMMUNE

"The trade unions have had an immunity from criticism for many years," he said in an interview. "Now I have removed the immunity. And they don't like it."

According to some published reports, what bothers labor's leaders on the national and local level is the broadness of Hill's attacks on what he alleges to be labor's slow fight against discrimination. President George Meany of the AFL-CIO is among the antagonized labor chiefs.

In a speech last week, Meany accused Hill of falsehoods, smears and a political attack on labor.

To a convention of the Negro American Labor Council, which backs the NAACP's labor program, Meany declared:

CHARGES "FALSE"

"When anyone tries to say that the trade unions are the chief barrier to the economic opportunities of the Negroes in this country, I reject it and I reject it, for it is simply not true."

He singled out Hill as the "chief prosecution expert" against labor, and accused him of falsely portraying labor's racial practices.

At the same convention, Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Automobile Workers, said that discrimination against Negroes remains the "greatest gap between the noble goals of democracy and its performance."

As part of the NAACP's new

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Do you have an uneasy, overwhelming feeling that Christmas is near?

I do. I hear the song of Santa Claus ringing clear.

They have already chopped down a giant spruce from a Western site to bring its olde, greene dignity to Washington, which our people worship as the place to which our taxes do flow and from which the true flow of our being is promised.

As one season leaps upon another now, so our choice is dismayed. Before the flying baseballs of the World Series land, the football is in the air.

ARTIFICIAL SNOW

The basketball player dribbles. The hockey player teases the puck. The people who like to ski don't wait for the snow to fall; they create artificial snow.

The seasons have lost their reasons. Everything now is ahead of what used to be.

I realized this some weeks ago when I received a card wishing me a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year in 1963."

Having just discarded our withered, home-carved pumpkin—our daughter likes to sustain the ghostly splendor of a candlelit jack-o'-lantern—we hate to have our appreciation of Thanksgiving pressed upon us unduly by threat of the imminent arrival of Santa Claus.

RUSH OF SEASONS

Before you can fully assume the prayerful attitude of being grateful for what you have, the push is put upon you to confer what perhaps you can't afford.

Such is the rush of seasons that before you can enjoy the harvest—if any, an. some years it is small—you are summoned to the great giveaway.

Well, for one, I don't like turning the calendar upside down quite that far. Who likes to get a flag on the Fourth of July bought in December, or a speckled Christmas necktie purchased last February?

Planning ahead has its advantages but also its defects. Don't get me wrong. I'm not anti-Santa Claus. I'm speaking of the situation here at home.

If you have a Christmas present you want to send to any dear one overseas, I echo the urgent advice of the U.S. postal service: "Mail it already—or as soon as possible."

GUARD WRECK OF PLANE IN WHICH 4 DIED

EMPORIUM, Pa. (AP)—The Civil Air Patrol kept a round-the-clock guard on the wreckage of a light plane in which four men died, pending an investigation today by inspectors from the Civil Aeronautics Board.

The wrecked plane and the four bodies were found on a mountain side in a thickly wooded game preserve near Emporium Thursday, five days after the plane disappeared on a flight from Ithaca, N. Y., to DuBois-Jefferson County Airport.

The pilot, William Lane, 45, a state highway department inspector; and passengers William Milliren, 48, a restaurant operator; Eugene Hicks, 34, a trucking line operator; and Matthew Smith, 36, a meat inspector were killed. All were from the DuBois area.

HAD BEEN TO GAME

The men had gone to Ithaca to see the Penn-Cornell football game. Milliren's son plays for Penn. Saturday evening they took off on the flight home.

Irwin Murray, 42, of Emporium, a friend of Lane, said later he saw Lane's aircraft fly over Emporium on the return trip. But the plane never reached DuBois, some 40 miles southwest.

Murray and game protector Norm Erickson, 46, were driving along a mountain road in an old Army half-track when they found the wreck, flipped over, almost on its back with the four bodies on the ground beneath it.

ON MOUNTAIN TOP

Authorities said the plane had apparently gone into a slight dive and crashed about 100 feet from the top of a mountain five miles west of Emporium, almost exactly on its flight path, killing the four occupants instantly. Wreckage was scattered over a 25-yard radius, but there was no fire.

Murray, himself a pilot, said that when the plane was found its ignition was off and the stick was pulled back as if the pilot had been trying to climb when the plane crashed.

A CAP spokesman said the plane may have been forced down by rough weather.

The bull-horn acacia tree in Mexico sustains armies of fierce ants that protect its foliage. The slender biting ants feed on a nectarlike secretion. They fight off leaf-eating insects and browsing cattle.

Adlai Says Donovan Could Ransom Red

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson suggested Wednesday the possibility of sending James B. Donovan to Cuba "to see if he can ransom Mr. Mikoyan."

Stevenson, ambassador to the United Nations, with tongue in cheek, was referring to the fact that Anastas I. Mikoyan, a Soviet first deputy premier, has been in Cuba for two weeks conferring with Fidel Castro.

And he named Donovan, the Brooklyn lawyer who has been negotiating for release of the Bay of Pigs invasion prisoners, as a likely man to return Mikoyan to the outer world.

Stevenson was greeted with laughter as he made the quip in introducing Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, wife of the vice president, at a medical research awards luncheon.

Bullets Close Season At Temple Saturday; Seven Seniors Bow Out

Gettysburg College will bring down the curtain on its 1962 football season Saturday afternoon when it travels to Philadelphia to meet Temple University in a 1:30 o'clock contest.

Gettysburg will go into the contest with a 2-6 record and a 1-4 slate in the Middle Atlantic Conference. Temple is 3-5 on the year, having lost its last four outings and is 2-2 in the conference. Saturday's meeting will mark the seventh between the two schools, Gettysburg having won the first five with last year's game ending in a scoreless tie.

For the first time this year Coach Gene Haas will be faced with an injury problem which may sideline ends Barry Shaw and Pat Noonan; guard Fred Butler, and tackle, Irv Strohecker. In order to fill the gaps, Haas will go with Ken Snyder at end, move Dave Wehr to tackle and push Dick Foellner over to the guard slot. Don Enders, Camp Hill, will start at quarterback with Rick Taylor at fullback, Phil Parsons, Cherry Hill, N.J., will start at right half with either Al Hallam or Tony Presogna on the left side.

FINAL FOR SENIORS

Saturday's encounter will also mark the last time seven seniors will appear in a Bullet uniform. These include Fred Butler, Washington, D.C.; Dick Clower, Roanoke, Va.; Bob Duncan, Dover, Del.; Dick Foellner, Manheim; Joe Murphy, Cheshire, Conn.; Tom Shreiner, Lancaster, and Ralph Sorrentino, Highland Park, N.J.

George Makris, who will complete his third season at the Temple helm on Saturday, will probably be without the services of his ace sophomore quarterback Mark Lichtenfeld. Lichtenfeld sustained a leg injury two weeks ago and saw little action in last week's encounter with Toledo. Lichtenfeld is the team's leading passer, rusher and total offense man. He has rolled up 695 yards on 163 passing and rushing plays.

Letterman Joe Morelli, Dunmore, will replace Lichtenfeld. Also working in the starting backfield will be Don Council, Camden, N. J., and Tom Stricker, Treves, at the halfback slots and Ernie Wayland, Lansdale, at fullback.

The Owl forward wall will include: Ends, Charlie Wing, 6'3", 195 pounds, and John McGinley, 6'1", 195; tackles, Bill Lites, 6', 205, and Vic Baga, 6'2", 205; guards, Bob Marshall, 5'10", 195, and Elmer Romeis, 5'8", 190; and junior Tony Pitale, 6', 195, will work the center post.

Saturday's game will be televised over WFIL-Channel 6, Philadelphia.

Taneytown

TANEYTOWN—J. Edward Walters, past commander of the American Legion for the state of Maryland, told members of the Lions Club Tuesday evening that "the protection of freedom is a continuous struggle." He was the guest speaker at the club's annual Veterans Day program and reminded members of the sacrifices made by veterans to preserve the freedoms of the world.

He was introduced by Dr. Paul Roxin, program chairman. President Lewis Baer reminded members of the sale of seat belts as a part of the safety program and asked members to promote the sale of fruit cakes for the holiday season.

4 IMPORTANT SCHOOL TILTS OVER WEEKEND

By DAVE LEHERR

HARRISBURG (AP) — Only a handful of schoolboy football games are on tap this weekend, but those that are size up as big ones.

Four big battles are scheduled in Western Pennsylvania while the Blakely-West Scranton contest highlights the cross-state action.

Rostraver clashes with Carmichaels for the coveted WPIAL Class A championship and Apollo meets Verona for the Class B title Friday night.

Saturday finds Peabody going after its first Pittsburgh City League crown since 1953 against Langley and Arnold tangling with Plum for the Allegheny interscholastic conference title.

"MUST GAME"

The Blakely-West Scranton clash—matching two bitter arch-rivals—is a "must game" for the Bears, who are battling for their first East Penn championship since 1948.

The Bears currently have a 7-0-1 log and trail defending champion Old Forge by a .03 in rating points in the conference's northern division.

Tamaqua, which finished its season last week with a 9-0-1 log, is the unofficial southern division champion, succeeding Coal Twp. We're tossing a coin and picking Blakely to beat West Scranton and win the northern division do-dogfight.

Our other choices: Peabody, for the Pittsburgh crown; Carmichaels for the WPIAL Class A title; Apollo for Class B honors and Arnold for the Allegheny interscholastic conference championship.

In other games we pick Steelton-Highspire over Lebanon, Lancaster over Williamsport, Carlisle over Mechanicsburg, Danville over Coal Twp., Bloomsburg over Sunbury, Minersville over Nesquehoning, Milton over Berwick, East Pennsboro over Newport, Nesheim over Bensalem, Allentown over Dieruff over Central Catholic, Abington over Cheltenham and Darby over Nether-Provident.

Season's average—272 right, 82 wrong, 21 ties, .768 per cent.

IACONE TOP STATE SCORER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Joe Iacone, West Chester's standout fullback, is the leading scorer among football players on Pennsylvania college teams with 98 points on 16 touchdowns and two extra points.

The latest Associated Press survey Wednesday showed that Jerry Bejil of Slippery Rock was in second place with 84 points on 10 touchdowns, 21 extra points and one field goal. Toby Barkman of East Stroudsburg is third with 74 points on 12 touchdowns and 2 extra points.

Iacone has finished his regular season, playing in nine games, and his college career unless West Chester receives a post season bowl invitation.

Bejil has played in nine games and Barkman in eight. Each has one more game to play. Their two teams meet for the state conference title Saturday at Slippery Rock.

Rounding out the top scorers are Max Miesion, West Chester, 60; Larry Kerstetter, Susquehanna, 56; Seth Keller, Lycoming, 52; Terry Herr, Lebanon Valley, 50; Wayne Swift, Westminster, 48; Alan Sepsi, California, 48; and Larry Erdman, Susquehanna, there are in the most men of the Paul Martha, Pitt, and Larry Glueck, Villanova, all with 44.

Clay Kayoes Archie Moore In 4th Round As He Had Forecast; Looks To Liston

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cassius Marcellus Clay, the Louisville Lip who calls the round for a knock-out and makes it come true, most assuredly must be the crown prince of the heavyweight division in boxing today.

Twenty-year-old Cassius established himself as the heir apparent to the heavyweight throne Thursday night when in four rounds—the exact round he had predicted—he knocked out a game, a gallant and a quite old and outclassed Archie Moore.

Clay is unbeaten now in 16 straight fights as a professional and there is hardly anyone left in the depleted heavyweight section to fight except the champion himself, Sonny Liston.

END OF ROAD?

But even William Faversham—Clay's chief manager, or the man most prominent in the syndicate of influential Louisville businessmen who own him—conceded they are in no hurry to tangle with the ominous Sonny.

And Moore's future?

Tears were in old Archie's eyes when he confronted newsmen in the dressing room after the fight. Was he through? Was this the end?

"I don't know. It might just be," said the oldest man in boxing, who will never see birthday No. 45 again.

There was a question for Archie. "Did the sun go down to-night?"

NOT FIRST CLOUD

"Maybe no, but it was covered by a cloud. It might blow away, the cloud might," said Archie.

Archie, sitting on a rubbing table in his dressing room at the Sports Arena, thought awhile longer.

There was a glove bruise around the forehead above the left eye. Otherwise he was unmarked. "Every morning brings a new ray of sunshine, a new ray of hope," he finally observed. "I've had cloudy nights before."

TURN-AWAY CROWD

Clay started the old man out in the third round as a turn-away crowd of some 16,200, plus a national closed theater circuit audience, watched.

Clay had Archie groggy and backed onto the ropes near Clay's corner.

Archie managed to last the round. But when the bell brought on the fourth—Clay's much publicized timetable for the end—it was evident that Archie was near the end of his astonishing string of years in the ring.

DOWN 3 TIMES

Perhaps it was a left hook that started the final downfall. Referee Tommy Hart later said there was no one punch, just a lot of them that smashed through Archie's tired, weakened defense.

Archie went down three times. The first two went for counts of eight. The first time left Archie

BEAU PURPLE HAS HIS EYE ON HORSE OF YEAR

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Beau Purple, a late entrant in the voting for Horse of the Year honors, may try to improve his claim in the $75,000-added Gallant Fox Handicap at Aqueduct Saturday.

His principal rivals, Carry Back and Kelso, are not in action. Beau Purple, a 5-year-old, got into contention for Horse of the Year honors—previously regarded as between Carry Back and Kelso—with victories over each of them in recent races.

His reputation suffered, however, when he ran 11th in a field of 13 in the Washington D.C. International at Laurel last Monday. Kelso was second and Carry Back third to France's Match II in that one.

Trainer Allen Jenkins said that there are two factors which tempt him to start Beau Purple in the Gallant Fox, only five days after the International. First, Beau Purple wasn't asked for serious effort after Kelso put him away after 7 furlongs. Secondly, there does not appear to be any great early speed among the other Gallant Fox probabilities.

If he goes, Beau Purple will carry top weight of 128 pounds in the 1 1/2-mile test. Tutankhamen and Sensitivo, 1-2 in the anhatan Handicap, and Polydad, who won the Gallant Fox last year, top the other likely starters in a bulky field.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pete Retzlaff, star end of the Philadelphia Eagles, who has been sidelined with a broken right arm, is expected to return to action Sunday against the New York Giants, Eastern leaders in the National Football League.

OTTAWA (AP) — Russia's national hockey team opened its nine-game tour of Canada on an impressive note Thursday night, scoring a 7-3 victory over the Ottawa Senior Montagnards.

almost standing on his head as he tried to regain his feet.

The second time Archie took the count on the seat of his pants, his left leg bent at the knee.

On the final trip down, the count had reached four. But the referee was paying no attention. He had already moved in to stop the match.

CLAY ECSTATIC

The Clay dressing room, as might be expected, was ecstatic with joy.

Said Cassius:

"I am the greatest, and I am also the double greatest, cuz I took him out in four just like I told you I would."

For the record, Clay in his last appearance here predicted he would knock out Alejandro Lavarante in five rounds, just half the time it took Moore to accomplish the same job over the same opponent.

Clay did it in five and now claims that this is the 11th time in his 16 fights he has named the finishing round.

NATS WIN 2ND IN BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Syracuse Nationals may have found a home away from home in Baltimore's new Civic Center.

But don't count on the National Basketball Association team moving here. At least, not while Danny Biasone is president of the club.

The Nats crushed the Los Angeles Lakers 120-98 Thursday night for their second consecutive victory in Baltimore this season. The game attracted 7,511—about 500 more than the capacity of the Syracuse War Memorial Auditorium.

In the only other NBA game Thursday, the Chicago Zephyrs nipped the New York Knicks 95-92 in Chicago.

By winning, Syracuse increased its record to 7-2 and remained on the heels of the Boston Celtics (10-2) in the Eastern Division of the NBA. The two clubs meet to-night in Syracuse.

"I'm in basketball for the sport of it, and for the city of Syracuse," Biasone said. "That's where my roots are. If I were forced to move elsewhere, I would sell."

JONES LEADS GOLF TOURNEY BY 2 STROKES

By STAN ATKINS

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—John Paul Jones, who found a magic putting touch, held a two-stroke lead today as play entered the second round of the $15,000 Mobile Open Golf Tournament.

Jones, a virtual unknown on the pro touring circuit, knocked in birdie putts ranging from 1 to 40 feet in Thursday's opening round. The 31-year-old Hinsdale, Ill., assistant pro carded a 33-32—65 over the par 36-36—72, 6,800-yard Mobile Municipal course.

Jones, a teaching pro, played in a few tournaments last year. He rejoined the pro tour a week ago for the Cajun Classic at Lafayette, La., and finished in a tie for 23rd, good for $150 in winnings.

A host of veteran pros and few new faces were grouped behind Jones.

SOME NEW FACES

They included Tony Lema, with a 67, and George Knudson, the Canadian; Don Cherry, the Wichita Falls, Tex., singer; amateur Downing Gray of Pensacola, Fla., and Jim Wright of Enid, Okla., all at 68.

Defending champion Gay Brewer Jr., Jim Ferree, Jon Gustin and Sam Carmichael were at 69. The 70-stroke contingent of 13 included such as businessman-golfer Freddie Haas, Don Fairfield, Johnny Pott, Don Bispinghoff and Tom Neipote. John Barnum, winner of the Cajun open; Doug Sanders, Dave Ragan and Paul Harney were bunched with a dozen others at 71.

Last Football Game Tonight At Biglerville

The last football game of the area season will be played tonight at 8 o'clock at Biglerville where the Cannons meet Shipensburg in a Blue Mountain League game.

Biglerville enters the game with a 4-4-1 record while Shipensburg sports an 8-1 mark as well as second place in the league.

Ten seniors on the Cannon squad will make their final appearance.

GREEN BAY TO CONTINUE ITS WIN STRING

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The Green Bay Packers' bid to become the first National Football League team since 1942 to go through a regular season unbeaten gets a two-fold test within the next week, beginning Sunday in Green Bay against the Baltimore Colts.

On Thursday, Thanksgiving Day the Packers will try to carve up the Detroit Lions for a second time this season in their annual game in Detroit. But it is doubtful if either game will reach the proportions of Green Bay's 49-0 victory over Philadelphia last week, one which prompted a wit to remark:

STEADY FAVORITES

"If the Green Bay Packers faced Red China tomorrow, they would be three touchdown favorites."

The Packers will be favored over both the Colts and Lions, as they gun for their 10th and 11th victories this season. A pair of wins would leave still three games to go for a perfect season, last achieved by the Chicago Bears' 11-0 record in 1942.

This week's picks (last week, 9 correct, 2 wrong; season, 58-34-4).

Green Bay over Baltimore—The Packers' Paul Hornung is available again and fullback Jim Taylor is hot on the trail of the rushing and scoring titles in the NFL. Colts defense has been tough, but Packers have been tougher.

New York over Philadelphia—Eagles will be on rebound from Packers lacing, but Giants won't let up with chance for second straight Eastern title and another crack at Packers.

Pittsburgh over Washington—Steelers' big, rugged defense will make the difference, despite return to health by "Skins" Bobby Mitchell.

LIONS OVER VIKINGS

Detroit over Minnesota — Lions have offense back in gear now, and face woeful Viking defense. Fran Tarkenton won't find any patsies in Detroit's defense.

Chicago over Dallas—Bears' Billy Wade is on his late season spurt and Cowboys' Eddie LeBaron is hurt.

St. Louis over Cleveland—Cards clicking under Charley Johnson at quarterback while Browns in trouble with fullback Jimmy Brown having an off year.

Los Angeles over San Francisco — Rams' defense getting better and the 49ers offense getting worse. Jon Arnett, Zeke Bratkowski and Dick Bass may finally give Swede Sware the offense he's looking for.

AFL

Boston over Houston—Pat's defense gets the job done on Oilers, whose quarterback George Blanda still is being intercepted too much.

Dallas over Denver—The Texans have good defense, too, when it counts. They also have better runners in Curtis McClinton and Abner Haynes.

Buffalo over Oakland — Bills' Cookie Gilchrist should do well against battered Raiders defense.

Elite Of Nation's Grid Teams Will Face Day Of Judgment On Saturday

By ROBERT MOORE

Associated Press Sports Writer
Saturday may well prove the day of judgment for several of the nation's college football elite. Sprinkled across the land from the South to the Midlands and fanning out to the West Coast, talented teams face the task of making an indelible impression in the mad scramble for lucrative post-season bowl invitations.

Alabama, ranked No. 1, battles an old and sometimes troublesome foe in Georgia Tech, twice beaten and once tied, at Atlanta.

Coach Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide hasn't yielded more than seven points to any opponent in carving an 8-0 record but had some anxious moments before conquering comparatively weak Vanderbilt and Houston.

An unbeaten season would assure Alabama of the Southeastern Conference crown and a Sugar Bowl invitation regardless of what happens to third-rated Mississippi, likewise unbeaten and untied.

TROJANS CERTAIN

Southern California, ranked No. 2 and only other undefeated-untied team in the Top Ten, is host to a Navy team which has shown occasional signs of brilliance.

The Trojans have assured themselves already of a tie for the conference title and are almost certain to play the Big Ten representative in the Rose Bowl come New Year's afternoon.

Mississippi collides with Tennessee at Knoxville and will be meeting a squad of Volunteers which hasn't fared too well. The

STROUDSBURG GIVEN EDGE

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa. (AP)—East Stroudsburg holds a slight edge over Slippery Rock as the two teams head into a showdown for the State Colleges Football Conference title here Saturday, but that edge could disappear with the kickoff.

The Warriors are undefeated with eight feathers in their victory bonnet this season, while Slippery Rock's Rockets misfired in their 7th game (out of 9), losing to Indiana.

The Warriors' starting linemen, weighing in at over 200 pounds each, have held the opposition to an average of only 47 yards per game on the ground, and 104 yards per game overall, tops for defense in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).

East Stroudsburg also has a strong offense, spearheaded by fullback Toby Barkman and the "workhorse," fullback Jan Bellweather.

But this is where Slippery Rock starts to even the odds. Barkman, in third place in statewide scoring with 74 points, is beaten out by Slippery Rock's fullback Jerry Bejil, with 84, a dangerous runner and a good punter. Bejil is topped only by West Chester's Joe Iacone with 98.

LOCAL HORSES TAKE TITLES

Three championships in the Maryland - Pennsylvania horse show circuit for the 1962 season were won by horses owned by LeRoy H. Winebrenner, Baltimore St., it was announced at the annual meeting held recently at Brunswick, Md.

Pet took two titles, winning the lead line pony division as well as the saddle pony division.

The other championship was gained by Top Notch Lario Prince in the children's harness pony division. Winebrenner's Little Pete also took the reserve championship in the same division.

Other local horses gaining honors included: Five-gaited division, reserve champion, Penny's Queen, owned by Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, Springs Ave.; harness pony division, reserve champion, Little Pete, Cheri Swope.

Players on both teams didn't like the idea but left it up to the league officials to decide.

ABL President Abe Saperstein, also owner of the Majors, said no more doubleheaders would be played until the experiment could be analyzed by the other owners.

Vols lost their first four games, including a 27-7 licking by Alabama, but have won their last three. If Ole Miss continues its winning ways, the Rebels are ticketed for either the Sugar or Cotton Bowl.

High British Minister Linked With Young Spy For Reds, A Homosexual

By DENNIS NEEDLE
LONDON (AP)—A leading expert on Britain's security system Thursday began an investigation of sensational rumors that a government minister planned to flee to the Soviet Union with a homosexual spy.

Prime Minister Macmillan in a startling statement to the House of Commons Wednesday called for a "trial of truth" and named Lord Radcliffe, 63, as the head of a tribunal with sweeping powers to look into the rumors and the state of government security.

The spy alarm was heightened by Charles Ian Orr-Ewing, civil lord of the admiralty, who said in a speech that thousands of Communist secret agents are operating in Britain.

SERIOUS INTRIGUE

Macmillan himself warned that "hostile intrigue and espionage are being relentlessly maintained on a large scale" in Britain and that "massive efforts are being made by every possible method to undermine our security."

His statement was prompted by a rumor that Thomas Galbraith, former civil lord of the admiralty and the second-ranking civilian official there, planned to defect to the Soviet Union with William John Vassall.

Vassall, an admiralty clerk, confessed at his trial last month that the Soviets used his homosexuality to blackmail him into spying for them for six years. He was jailed for 18 years.

AWARE OF SPY

Lord Radcliffe's tribunal also will investigate a press report that it was known for 18 months before Vassall's arrest last September that there was a spy in the admiralty.

This will be Lord Radcliffe's second inquiry into government security. He led an investigation of intelligence services after George Blake, a foreign office intelligence agent turned traitor, was jailed for 42 years last year.

As a result of the investigation greatly tightened regulations for civil service employees went into effect.

HAS RESIGNED

Macmillan told Parliament a "dark cloud of suspicion and innuendo" has surrounded Galbraith the former admiralty minister who last week resigned as under-secretary for Scotland. Vassall had worked for him at the admiralty, and a number of brief, seemingly innocent letters from the minister to the clerk were found in Vassall's apartment.

"It is no good beating about the bush," declared the prime minister. "What was being spread about was that he was guilty of a perverted or immoral association with Vassall."

FATHER OF TWO

As Macmillan spoke, Galbraith, 45, married, and the father of two children, sat white-faced on the Conservative benches behind him. He is a member of the House of Commons from Glasgow.

A British newspaperman, Macmillan said, claimed he had been told by the police or security services that Vassall, before his arrest Sept. 12, intended to join Galbraith in Italy.

The implication, said Macmillan was that Galbraith either intended to defect to the Soviet Union or help Vassall do so.

Use the standard recipe for cooking the cornmeal but dip the slices in flour before frying. When you cook bacon, do so over very low heat so the rendered fat will be white and suitable for frying.

PIPED MUSIC IS MEDIOCRE, SAYS SKITCH

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"I would like to rip all the loud speakers out of banks, elevators, and airplanes," said Skitch Henderson, normally a mild-mannered gentleman. "Because they pipe in music which, nine times out of 10, is mediocre music, poorly reproduced."

"But more than that, these large masses of mechanical music change people's relationship to music. It ceases to be an aesthetic form and becomes functional—like a sidewalk."

Next month Henderson will observe his 1,500th appearance on television. It will come as musical director on NBC's "Tonight Show," the network on which he started more than 14 years ago.

BIT OF MOONLIGHTING

Henderson's nightly chores are a bit of approved network moonlighting. His primary employment is network music director. This means he composes and arranges music for other shows, including documentaries and "specials." He often takes busman's holidays, too, directing orchestras and soon will reconstitute the NBC symphony for a special children's Christmas concert on "Discovery."

The program Howard K. Smith bumped last Sunday to make room for "political obituary" of Richard M. Nixon will be shown on ABC on Nov. 18. Called "America's Fighting Men," it is a look at the nation's new, mobile striking force.

Some television stars develop profitable side lines making record albums, buying motels and raising beef cattle. But Bill Dana and Jayne Meadows will be doing it the hard way. They've signed on as guides for a pair of airplane conducted tours to South America this winter. Miss Meadows is the co-owner of a Beverly Hills travel agency.

CHINESE RAP RED POLICIES

By JOHN RODERICK

Singer Separates From 2nd Husband

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Singer Jane Powell says she and her husband, stockbroker Patrick Nerney, have embarked on a trial separation.

The singer said Nerney moved out of their Beverly Hills home and into a hotel Tuesday, five days after their eighth wedding been timed for the important Soviet meeting.

The official attack on Khrushchev's line reiterated China's thesis that "United States imperialism is the main force of aggression and war, the center of world reaction, the bulwark of colonialism, an international gendarme, the biggest international exploiter and the most ferocious enemy of the peoples of the whole world."

In a likely reference to withdrawal of Soviet missiles from Cuba, which the Chinese have described as appeasement, the paper said the danger of world war is increased, rather than lessened, "if one retreats, bows down or even begs for peace before imperialism at the expense of the revolutionary people."

The deepening dispute between Moscow and Peking centers around the Soviet leader's insistence that communism can negotiate with the West to avoid nuclear war.

anniversary.

Miss Powell, 33, and Nerney, 34, have a daughter, Lindsay, 6. She has two children, Geary, 11, and Suzanne, 10, by her previous marriage to Geary Steffen.

Nerney has a 14-year-old daughter by a former marriage to actress Mona Freeman.

MOTHER KILLED

MOUNT JOY, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. William Arndt, 48, Mount Joy, R. 1, mother of four children, was killed here Thursday in the crash of a trailer truck and her car at the intersection of Route 230 and in the other ends.

Donagel Springs road. The truck was loaded with pipe. Truck driver Everett Davies of Ellinsboro, Mo., leaped from his cab and removed Mrs. Arndt from her flaming car. Police said she was dead on arrival at Lancaster General Hospital. In addition to the children she is survived by her widower.

When you're cooking spaghetti and want to keep the long strands unbroken, add them to a large kettle of boiling salted water. As the part of the strands under water softens, you'll be able to push the intersection of Route 230 and in the other ends.

BARRIERS TO SACRIFICE ARE ONLY MENTAL

By REV. L. J. KARSCHNER
Pastor, St. John's Lutheran Church, Abbottstown

BREAKING THE SACRIFICE BARRIER

The "four-minute-mile" used to be a seemingly unattainable goal for track men. Then one day someone ran a mile in less than four minutes. Only a short time afterward, three men — in the same race — did it. As soon as the barrier had been broken, others found they could do it too.

This makes us ask, "Was this barrier principally in their minds — rather than in their physical limitations?" We begin to suspect there was at least a mental aspect to it. There is plenty of evidence to indicate that we do have these mental blocks or barriers — obstacles which keep us from certain achievements. And undoubtedly it is true of our stewardship, our giving for the work of God's Kingdom. At this season, when many churches are conducting their stewardship programs, it might do us all good to think about "breaking the sacrifice barrier."

FOLLOW OTHERS
Some people have levels beyond which they think they just cannot go in giving. Regardless of the process by which we adopt these limitations, most of us have them. When we have adopted such limitations, however, they often stand, sturdy and strong, stopping any challengers — the sacrifice barriers. But it is interesting to see what happens when someone breaks one of these barriers and goes beyond it. Before long, someone else follows, then another and another. In one congregation, five years ago, three families had pushed up to a figure which most agreed was a very fine level of stewardship. Five years later, however, 25 families had moved up to that level, and 15 of these had moved on into higher brackets, some doubling what they had been giving previously.

Looking back over these past years, the families concerned testify that the "sacrifice barrier" was just a mental block, the point in their minds — not in their means — beyond which they thought they could not go. As we move onward in our stewardship, we look back "scorning the base degrees by which we did ascend." Dr. Anna Kugler, returning to this country after spending years on the mission field, said she was most disturbed by the low meaning of the word "sacrifice" in America.

FORMIDABLE BARRIER
The odd thing about this is that those who are farthest from sacrificing see this barrier as a formidable thing. Those who are closest to it are amazed how it evaporates, like an illusion, as they approach it. And once they have gone beyond it, they find a strange kind of exhilaration at those higher altitudes. A farmer wrote: "This thing of giving, I do not understand . . . but there is something about it that blesses us. Those who give most have the most left. I believe that every sacrifice we make will so enrich us in the future that our regret will be that we did not sacrifice more. Give and somewhere from out the clouds, or from the sacred depths of human hearts, a melody divine will reach your ears, and gladden all your days upon the earth." Those who give most usually are the last to speak of sacrifice. They know the joys of service.

OFFER CHALLENGE
Jesus warned about those who lay up treasures for themselves and are not rich toward God, but God holds out to us this challenge: "Bring the full tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and put me to the test, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and bring blessing." Malachi 3:10.

PRAYER
O God, Who dost beckon us onward and upward on the pathway of service, forgive us for adopting limits for our discipleship, since we follow in the footsteps of Him who went all the way to the cross. We thank Thee for those who have taught us the satisfactions gained from those higher planes of service and who have walked with us in them. May there be no feeling of pride when we forge beyond our man-made barriers, only a closer walk with Him Who is our Lord and Redeemer, even Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

The spirit of Thanksgiving takes root in the heart of a child in the same gradual fashion most of us have experienced.

First there is excitement and anticipation which abundance awakens in our minds.

Then comes the pensive moment when we realize that all this abundance is Someone's gift to us.

Next we know the prayer of gratitude that flows from willing lips and a thankful heart.

Finally — and supremely — there is the sense of confidence, of trust, in a God whose Love is everywhere so manifest.

The hope of your neighborhood churches is that your family's observance of this traditional feast may encourage the spiritual growth of your children . . . and renew your own precious faith.

Castro May Emerge As Hero In Cuban Crisis Unless U.S. Removes Russian Bombers

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

If Fidel Castro is not to emerge in the guise of victor and hero from the U.S.-Soviet confrontation, it may be necessary one of these days for the United States to renege the Cuban crisis.

The appearance of a Castro victory in the Cuban standoff, after all that has happened, could have disastrous results for U.S. policy in Latin America, where it scored heavily with the strong posture which resulted in dismantling of Soviet missiles in the Caribbean.

RED PROPAGANDA

The Communists could propagandize the compromise on either of these points as a backdown by the United States in the face of Castro's defiance. Castro might thus try to recoup some of the losses he sustained in Latin America when both Kennedy and Khrushchev humiliated him in the showdown.

It is difficult to believe that the long stay of Anastas I. Mikoyan in Cuba has been anything more than a Kremlin masquerade, a subterfuge to indicate to the world that the Havana regime still enjoys sovereignty, that it is not owned outright by Soviet communism.

It is difficult to believe that was no collusion between Castro and the Soviet first deputy premier in what is presented to the world as a stubborn Castro stand against inspection and against giving up the bombers.

The Soviet Union, through Premier Khrushchev, pledged itself to remove from Cuba any weapons Kennedy regarded as offensive, and to permit on-the-spot inspection. Moscow's excuse for not removing the bombers and fulfilling the inspection commitment was that Castro wouldn't permit it.

CASTRO ISOLATED

But Castro has no place to go. His bridges are burned. He has no choice in the long run except to obey Moscow. The whole Cuban economy and all the island's military hardware depend upon the Russians. If Moscow support were withdrawn, Cuba would be in chaos. The Red Chinese are in no position to substitute for the Russians even if Castro wanted to pull a deviation.

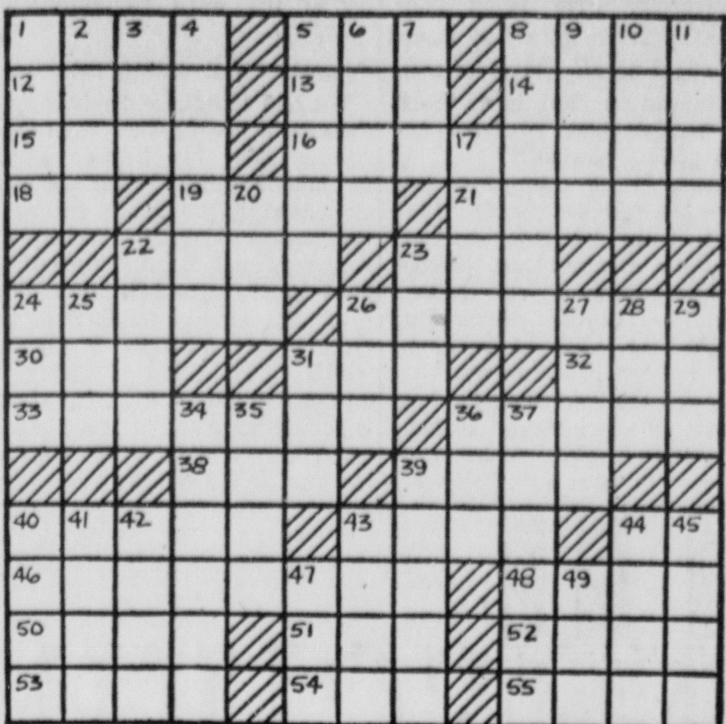

Therefore, it seems logical to suppose that if Moscow wanted to insist, to twist Castro's arm, the Cuban boss would have no choice but to do as he was told.

SCOFF RED CLAIMS

However, instead of insisting on Cuban permission for inspections and surrender of the bombers, Mikoyan and the Soviet press take up a cry of support for Castro's so-called "five points," which include a demand that the United States give up its Guantanamo base.

The Russians must know the five points will get nowhere, but the cry provides Khrushchev with excuses.

The Kremlin obviously has difficulties within the Communist bloc. Red China and its adherents view the Cuban events as a Soviet retreat, a "Munich," a betrayal of world communism. Khrushchev's critics in the camp make much of the Cuban events as a demonstration of the Soviet chief's weakness in opposing "U.S. imperialism."

"U.S. RETREAT"

Soviet propaganda already is painting a picture of U.S. retreat in the Cuban crisis. Writing in Izvestia, a Russian commentator says Khrushchev's actions "saved the peace and forced the frantic warmongers to retreat," and that it is incorrect to assume that a U.S. policy of strength won out.

An East German propagandist writes that "Kennedy gave in during the Cuban crisis at the last minute, gave a guarantee against any military invasion, and thus enabled the government of the Soviet Union to dismantle the defense measures on the island."

Khrushchev would like to have something more convincing, however, in the way of a U.S. backdown to show his critics. Speculation is justified that Mikoyan went to Cuba not to get Castro to buckle under, but to instruct him on how to conduct himself. Castro's stubbornness is perhaps convenient for Khrushchev.

UNDERSEAS POWER PLANT IS HAILED

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An undersea atomic power plant: being designed by Westinghouse Electric Corp. may give man the key to the ocean bottom, the firm says.

The company said Wednesday that a reactor producing 3,000 kilowatts of electricity and able to withstand pressures two miles deep in the ocean is now in the preliminary design stage at the Westinghouse Astronuclear Laboratory here.

Such a power plant could be used, the firm said, to support life in a human community at the bottom of the ocean while geological studies or mining operations are carried out.

70 PCT. UNDERWATER

Richard C. Cunningham, manager of the Compact Reactor Systems Department, said, "Man has known for hundreds of years that the 70 per cent of the earth covered by water contains vast natural resources. The obvious problem is how to get them mined and to the surface."

Establishment of an undersea community, he said, would be like discovering a new world.

The atomic unit envisioned by Westinghouse would use thermoelectric elements—a combination of metals which produce electric current when heated at one end and cooled at the other. Atomic fission would supply the heat, while the plentiful ocean water would act as the cooling agent.

GROUP BACKS PROPOSAL ON PA. EDUCATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—A plan for reorganizing the State Council of Education proposed by Gov. Elect William W. Scranton has been endorsed by the Executive Committee of the Governor's Committee of 100 for Better Education.

At a meeting here Wednesday, the committee—formed by Gov. Lawrence—also volunteered its services to Scranton who will become governor in January.

At the same time the committee reaffirmed its support of mandatory school district reorganization, but remained silent on Scranton's proposal for a one-year delay in the effective dates of the 1961 law.

TWO-COUNCIL PLAN

"We stand ready to be of whatever assistance he wishes," said Duane Wilder, committee co-chairman.

Scranton had told the group last month that he would call upon them for advice.

The council reorganization endorsed by the citizens' group was the same presented by Scranton during his campaign.

It would divide that policy-making body into separate seven-to-nine-member councils on public education and on higher education. The two councils would then meet as a combined "board of education" to pass on all education policy matters.

CALLS COMPROMISE

The proposal would be a compromise between those who prefer all education matters from kindergarten through college in the hands of one council and those who prefer independent councils in the area of elementary-secondary and higher education.

Wilder said the group now is working out a legislative program to present to Scranton and to the legislature in 1963.

This would include proposals for higher teacher salaries and increased state subsidies.

PLAN TASK FORCE

Wilder said a nine-member task force would be formed to push the community (two-year) college program.

Part of the effort would involve distribution of a brochure outlining the merits of a community college.

Executive director David Gerard said the committee also hoped to stage a general conference early next year for persons interested in furthering the program.

Fifteen of the 23 members of the Executive Committee attended the day-long meeting.

The 1963 PGA golf tour will open January 4 with the $50,000 Los Angeles Open at the Rancho Municipal course.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, former chief delegate to the United Nations, urges creation of a permanent free world organization to combat communism.

In an address for a dinner Wednesday of the world branches conference of the English Speaking Union, Lodge said such an organization would be consistently capable of a "timely and effective common action" against communism.

Memorial Service Is Final Chapter In African Tragedy

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (AP)—A simple little memorial service at the Pilgrim Holiness Mission Church at Mount Frere in the Transkei African Reserve area on the Indian Ocean coast may well have been the final chapter in the mystery of two missing American children.

Seven-year-old Vincent Gray and his five-year-old sister, Sue, disappeared Oct. 5 while their missionary father, Rev. F. Burton Gray, of Weedville, Pa., was fishing from the rocks on the rugged Transkei "wild coast."

Gray's wife was in the United States at the time. She comes from near Pittsburgh and flew back to South Africa when her husband telephoned her.

Police and skin divers combed the area vainly for two weeks. The Grays kept up hopes and waited exactly a month before holding a memorial service for the two missing children. They have eight others.

MANY THEORIES

Africans crowded into the little church where the Rev. Gray is missionary to pay tribute to Vincent and Sue, whose photographs were surrounded by flowers in the church. The same evening white friends of the American couple came in. Mrs. Gray said afterward she and her husband still hoped the children might be alive "but we think the chance is very remote."

South Africans have been gripped by the tragedy and some fantastic theories about the missing children have been received by the police.

One writer claiming to be clairvoyant said the children's bodies were trapped in an underground hole in the ocean. Other theories advanced in newspapers are that the children were kidnapped by Africans, that their bodies were held underwater by spirits, or snagged by reeds along the coast.

SERVANT DAZED

The facts are that after the children disappeared the weather turned bitterly cold and it rained heavily. The police, after an intense search along the rocky coast and in the dense bush inland, gave them up for dead.

Mrs. Gray said in an interview that if the children had drowned it was strange that their bodies were not washed up. It might be their bodies got wedged under rocks somewhere along the coastline. She did not think the children would have wandered inland "on their own accord."

Newspapers reported that an African servant supposed to look after the children while the father was fishing had fallen asleep. But Mrs. Gray does not want to put the blame for the tragedy on anyone. She said:

"Some day we hope that God will give us an inkling of what happened to them."

BANKERS ASK CLOSE STUDY OF STATE CODE

HARRISBURG (AP) — A thorough study and review of the state banking code by the incoming Republican administration has been requested by the Pennsylvania Bankers Association.

William A. Lank, association president, told the group's annual conference opening here Wednesday that he had made the request in writing to Gov.-Elect William W. Scranton, now vacationing in Florida.

Lank, who is president of the Farmers National Bank of Bloomsburg, added:

400 BANKERS THERE

"This study should result in legislative recommendations to fulfill the needs of an aggressive economy, provide for the effectiveness of the dual banking system and to preserve the competitive position of state banks."

Later, John R. Bunting, vice president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, told the conference:

"Sky high college tuitions, blighted cities and a limping transportation industry are legacies of the post war population explosion."

"More important to the years immediately ahead," he said, "is the fact that the 'population explosion' of the fifties will cause a 'labor force explosion' if jobs are not created to accommodate the 'youths pouring into the labor market.'"

Approximately 400 Pennsylvania bankers are attending the meeting.

INDIANS OPEN BIG OFFENSIVE AGAINST REDS

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Indian troops have launched their strongest offensive in the undeclared Himalayan border war with the Communist Chinese, a Defense Ministry spokesman said Thursday. He said the attacks were carried out on the northeastern frontier and that an unknown number of Chinese were killed.

The Indian forces attacked Chinese positions near Wangong, about 15 miles from the Burma border, and carried out offensive

Chief Miller reported a possible central alarm for Carroll County is the near future. The board also authorized the purchase of 1,000 additional feet of hose and will replace batteries in two fire trucks.

The high school alumni association will hold Thanksgiving dance November 22, in the elementary school auditorium, Uniontown Rd., since the high school will be closed for repairs to the heating system over the holiday. George Royce and his orchestra, York, will provide music from 9 to midnight.

The student council will sponsor a Sadie Hawkins dance in the high school November 30 to raise money for the support of a war orphan.

Schools will close Wednesday for the Thanksgiving weekend, and will reopen Monday.

Donations of $50 each have been made by the Lions and Kiwanis Clubs toward the purchase of cheerleaders' uniforms, members of the PTA were told at a recent meeting during which the following parents discussed the present school curriculum: Mrs. Mary Alice Jennings, Mrs. Mary June Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Nussbaum, Mrs. Mildred Jester, John Hottinger and Homer Myers. The panel was moderated by Frank Wargny.

actions against a Red-held village near Jang, near the Bhutan border.

The spokesman said there were no Indian losses in the attacks, opened Wednesday.

"STRONG PATROL"

Latest reports said the fighting was still going on around Wangong. The Indian troops consisted of "a strong patrol" the spokesman said.

"A small patrol raided a village held by the Chinese aggressors a few miles from Jang," the spokesman said. Jang is just below the main Indian defense line on the Se Pass in the area of China's main thrust into India east of the Bhutan border.

The spokesman said U.S. and British weapons are in the hands of Indian troops facing the Chinese. But he was unable to say whether these arms have been used in any action so far.

nine in the wonderful way that suggests saving-it-with-a corsage to the male contingent.

But let not the male be hasty in his choice of bloms. To avoid a color clash, let him ask his lady's preference or the florist's advice. It is always best to leave the selection to the florist, when sending a long-distance token of flowers and preferences are unknown. Neutral but interesting corsage is thus assured.

Once the choice is given to you, my lady, do speak up. Remember that Eve knew what she wanted. And nothing is more unflattering to the male ego than hearing you say, "Oh, anything will do just fine." The gentleman is making a thoughtful gesture and it is ungrateful to treat it as a trifle.

So, what is your pleasure? A bird of paradise to wear at the waistline of a slinky dress? A full-blown duchess rose to pin at the neckline of a floating kind of dress?

New Era For European Catholics

VATICAN CITY (AP) — European Catholicism is entering a new era of close community, Common Market style, a leading Roman Catholic churchman believes.

"For the first time in the history of the church in Europe, bishops have come together for collaboration on common problems," said Franziskus Cardinal Koenig, archbishop of Vienna.

He said in an interview that the new sense of mutual identity among European prelates has emerged at the Vatican Ecumenical Council, and he predicted it will continue.

MOST SIGNIFICANT

It has involved, he said, church leaders of Germany, Belgium, France, the Netherlands, Austria, Switzerland, Poland and Yugoslavia, areas of differing languages, and often, historical divisions.

"In the past," Cardinal Koenig said, "we have been separated by these frontiers. There has been some contact among bishops on an individual basis, but never before have we come together on this wide European basis."

As the cardinal sees it, the new European ecclesiastical association, paralleling in some respects the emerging economic ties in Europe, is among the most significant developments of the council.

NEW EMPHASIS

"It is very important," he said, "we've found we have very much in common, more than we knew. We have established contacts here that will not disappear again."

The cardinal, 57, a scholar in comparative religion who once was a theology professor at the universities of Vienna and Salzburg, said the new pattern is part of a new church emphasis on regional leadership.

"We have come to a time when the bishops need more latitude of action," he said.

Proposals for spreading more authority among the bishops, with less power centered on the Vatican Curia, are to be considered by the current council.

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—William Supko, 60, a Pennsylvania Railroad freight conductor, was killed Thursday when he was struck by a train in the railroad's Waverly yards.

Police said Supko, of Duncan, Pa., apparently was walking on the tracks and failed to notice the freight train start to move.

SEE BUSIEST SEASON EVER FOR FLORIDA

By JOE MCGOWAN
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Many Florida business leaders forecast one of the busiest tourist seasons in years in the wake of the Cuban crisis which took shape 90 miles from its shores.

There are exceptions to the bright predictions but generally the tone is one of optimism.

The businessmen say their earlier fears that the crisis would cripple the vital tourist trade have been dispelled. Tourists already are beginning annual vacations in the state.

EXPECT 14 MILLION

A two-week survey by the Florida Council of 100, a business advisory group to Gov. Farris Bryant, resulted in a prediction that 1963 would be the biggest year yet in the history of Florida's economy.

The council predicted 14,700,000 tourists would visit Florida, compared with an estimated 12,200,000 this year.

Fred O. Dickinson of Palm Beach, council chairman, said, "the crisis has been a tremendous boost because of the thousands of servicemen who have been sent to Florida and are spending money in Florida hotels and restaurants."

"Also the hundreds of civilians in and out of government who have been sent to Florida in one connection and another with the crisis."

"BEST PROTECTED"

Dickinson said, "It is obvious now because of the tremendous military buildup in the state that Florida is the best protected area in the United States."

Airlines reported travel from northern areas to Florida resorts was improving, as expected with the onslaught of cold weather.

Florida business officials said the greatest danger of harm to winter tourism was the spread of false rumors.

To offset these, tourist officials plan to step up northern advertising programs to demonstrate that Florida is a pleasant and safe place for a winter stay.

DEEPENING THE RIVER
EASTMAN, Que. AP — Work has begun on a $300,000 public works project to lower the level of Silver Lake near here, by deepening the river that drains it.

Glen Brown, Quebec legislature member, says the project will reclaim between 5,000 and 10,000 acres and halt spring floods.

U.S., SOVIETS MAY AGREE ON CUBAN MATTER

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials said today the United States and the Soviet Union should be able to negotiate a peaceful solution to the last phase of the Cuban crisis. But Washington braced for a clash over aerial surveillance if Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro ties to force the issue.

Castro was reported to have sent a blunt warning through Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant that Cuba would shoot down U.S. planes flying reconnaissance missions. The United States has already made clear it would meet any such action with counteraction—meaning force.

More immediate importance is attached to the windup of talks between Castro and First Deputy Soviet Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan with the expectation that Mikoyan would return to Moscow by way of New York so he could meet with Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson and others of President Kennedy's Cuban negotiating team.

NEW CLIMAX

Kennedy himself turned his major attention back to the Cuban crisis today as it entered a climactic stage while West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, who was here for talks Wednesday and Thursday, turned homeward.

Kennedy and Adenauer agree that while the Cuban dispute continues in a critical stage there is no occasion for new Western initiatives on Berlin or any other major world issues in serious dispute with the Soviet Union.

At the same time their final communique clearly reflected a feeling that they have no immediate concern about a new East-West crisis over Berlin. The communique was devoid of any particular warning to Moscow on this point.

The usual pledge of support for Berlin when the President and the 86-year-old chancellor met was given only routinely. The communique said they agreed "that the freedom and viability of Berlin will be preserved in all circumstances and with all means."

Union Officer Faces Charges

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Teamsters' official Raymond Cohen faces a hearing today on charges of punching a former member of the union during a heavy vote Thursday by truckers from four states to decide whether to stay in the Teamsters or re-join the AFL-CIO.

Cohen, 56, of Brigantine, N.J., secretary-treasurer of Local 107 at a salary of $60,000-a-year and one of three international trustees of James R. Hoffa's Teamsters, was charged with assault and battery, disorderly conduct and breach of the peace.

Police said Louis Bressler, 58, walked up to Cohen and asked to be reinstated. Police said Bressler had been dropped from membership four or five years ago for allegedly failing to pay his dues.

The two men exchanged hot words, there was some pushing and Cohen punched Bressler three times, police said.

The incident occurred across the street from the National Guard Armory being used by the National Labor Relations Board as a polling place for the four-day election in Local 107 and three other Teamsters Locals. Cohen was checking activity around the polls, police said.

HEAVY SNOW IN FIVE STATES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The heaviest snow of the season spread from the Rockies into the central Plains today but the storm which hammered coastal sections of New England diminished.

Wet weather, mostly rain, covered broad areas of the country from the Rockies to the Ohio Valley, the extreme Northeast coast and in the far Northwest.

The snow storm which hit northern Colorado extended into Wyoming, western Nebraska, western Kansas and the entire Oklahoma Panhandle. Up to four inches of snow covered ground in Cheyenne, Wyo., and two inches fell in Denver. Lesser amounts were reported in the snow belt across the Dakotas into Minnesota.

The first snow of the season covered the entire Oklahoma Panhandle with amounts of two inches indicated. However, as the storm center moved out of the Texas Panhandle faster than expected, the threat of heavy snow in northwest Kansas and central Nebraska diminished. In Kansas, three inches of snow fell in Goodland.

EHRGOOD IS COUNTING ON SCRANTON AID

By JACK LYNCH
HARRISBURG (AP)—A young Republican senator challenging the Senate leadership of 86-year-old Sen. M. Harvey Taylor counted heavily today on support from Gov.-Elect William W. Scranton.

"Very frankly, Scranton holds the key," Sen. Thomas Ehrgood, 39-year-old Lebanon Republican, said Thursday night.

Ehrgood, who on Tuesday declared that Taylor would provide "regressive" leadership as president pro tempore of the Senate, said he was heartened that Scranton requested a week's delay of the Senate republican caucus set for next Monday.

NO PREFERENCE YET

The caucus will pick Senate officers for the 1963 session convening in January.

Scranton is cutting short his Florida vacation to return here for discussions Monday with Republican leaders in both houses of the General Assembly.

Ehrgood also said it was significant that Scranton has not indicated a preference for the $18,000-a-year pro tempore post which carries the important prerogative of making committee appointments.

TAYLOR CONFIDENT

Taylor told Scranton in a telephone call made by the governor-elect Thursday that he had the situation "well in hand" and that he would be elected to the powerful post he had held for 16 years until the Democrats reorganized the Senate two years ago.

Taylor added that he agreed to postpone the caucus meeting until Nov. 26 because there were doubts that a quorum of the 27-man Senate GOP delegation could be mustered for the original date.

Ehrgood disputed Taylor's claim, saying:

"Opposition to Sen. Taylor is quite substantial. And, depending of course on what final position Scranton takes, Taylor will be well defeated."

PLAN BACKFIRED

"I think the political tactic by Taylor to ram his candidacy through next Monday by calling the caucus meeting for that early

Ehrgood said he has written to Scranton explaining his view that Taylor could provide only "tired and unimaginative leadership," but that he has not spoken to the incoming governor on the phone.

He added he would confer with Scranton here next week.

MISS PORTER AT MEETING

Miss Judy Porter, York, field executive from the Penn-Laurel Girl Scout Council, attended a meeting of leaders, assistants and troop committee members of the Brownie, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scout troops, held on Tuesday evening at the home of the neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, Glenwyn Dr.

Miss Porter spoke on changes to take effect in the Girl Scout set-up during 1963; there will be four age groups instead of three, namely Brownies, 7 to 8 years old; the 9, 10 and 11-year-olds; the 12, 13 and 14-year-olds, and the seniors 15, 16 and 17-year-olds.

It was noted that a successful cookie sale had been conducted by the various units, with Mrs. Chester S. Byers as general cookie chairman, Mrs. James H. Spalding gave a resume of the fall meeting of the Penn Laurel Council held recently at the Chateau near Dillsburg. Mrs. Paul C. Mayers was appointed neighborhood secretary.

Plans were made for the various troops to participate in the making of favors for the Warner Hospital and the County Home on Christmas, Lincoln's and Washington birthdays. The troops of which Mrs. Samuel J. Snyder and Mrs. Paul Mayers are leaders, 976 and 957, will make the favors for Christmas; a troop will be assigned for Lincoln's birthday and the new Brownie troop, of which Mrs. Ritter is leader, together with Troop 780, Mrs. James Spalding, leader, will make the Washington's birthday favors.

Refreshments were served to the group by Mrs. Ritter. The next meeting is scheduled for January.

Cub Scout Den 3 met Thursday evening at the Community Center. The boys worked on their Christmas projects, assisted by Mrs. Annabelle Ohler and Mrs. Blanche Wolf, den mothers. There will be no meeting next Thursday due to Thanksgiving; the boys will go with Den 8 Cubs on the Friday tour of the Carroll Shoe at 2:15 p.m. in uniform. The next regular meeting will be held November 29. The Cubs are requested to wear old clothes to the meetings between now and Christmas to work on their projects.

Den 5 of Cub Pack 84 met on Tuesday evening at the Community Center. Mrs. Roy Beard and Mrs. Clyde Miller, den mothers, and Bobby Altoff, den chiefs, supervised for the brief business. Explorer Scout Larry Altoff was present to tell about his hiking trip to Philmont Scout Ranch.

Kennedy's last session with newsmen was Sept. 13. One scheduled for two weeks ago was cancelled because Cuban developments were still up in the air.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is reported to be considering naming Budget Director David E. Bell as foreign aid chief and Kermit Gordon as Bell's successor in the budget post.

Bell, 43, a former Harvard professor, would fill a vacancy created by Fowler Hamilton's resignation as head of the Agency for International Development.

TEACHERS VISIT Investors Loan Office DURING BIE WEEK

H. William Black, Manager, and Philip Hudson, District Supervisor, explain to the above group of teachers the Consumer Finance Business.

The teachers are Carla Yost, Donna Wolf, George W. Glenn, Evelyn Schriver, G. Donald Young, Mark G. Trout, Jacob M. Sheads, Thelma R. Wagner.

CHRISTMAS has many different meanings. To children it means new toys, to grown ups feasting and merriment, peace on earth, good will to men. But down through the years, the Christmas Seal has meant the same to everybody—a symbol of the fight against tuberculosis. For fifty-six years, this tiny Seal has been at work, helping to stamp out that dread disease, TB.

The fight is far from won. Strike your blow against tuberculosis. Answer your Christmas Seal letter today.

SHICK SCORES ABC FOR HISS TV REMARKS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The head of the Shick Safety Razor Co., angered by a television show on which Alger Hiss appeared as a critic of Richard M. Nixon, wants to cancel its million-dollar advertising contract with ABC-TV.

But ABC won't agree. Patrick Frawley, chief executive officer of the Shick firm, sought cancellation of the contract in a telegram to Vincent Francis, ABC-TV's western advertising director. The wire said in part:

"We are shocked at the extreme poor taste and judgment shown by the ABC network in presenting a convicted perjurer involved in the passing of United States secrets to the Communists as a critic of a former vice president of the United States."

In a return telegram, Francis said: "We value our relationship with you and your company, and, of course, we regret that you feel as strongly as you do about that broadcast. However, we cannot grant your request."

SHARE SPONSORSHIP
Asked why Shick would not be permitted to cancel, Francis said: "We're just being good businessmen."

A Shick spokesman said his company had contracted with ABC to sponsor parts of two shows—"Combat" and "Stony Burke"—starting the first of next year. The spokesman said the contract called for an expenditure of more than a million dollars. Francis confirmed the figure.

Francis said Shick was the only advertiser to complain about the program, which was shown nationally last Sunday night. Frawley has backed various anti-Communist functions.

The television program was called "The Political Obituary of Richard Nixon" and was moderated by Howard K. Smith. Hiss, whose conviction followed a congressional investigation in which Nixon participated, was one of several persons who expressed opinions on Nixon on the program.

Identical Cars In Police Mixup

PITTSBURGH (AP)—City Detective John B. Stack pulled up in front of the courthouse Thursday in a car he had borrowed from Detective Robert Butzler and found a group of uniformed policemen staring at him.

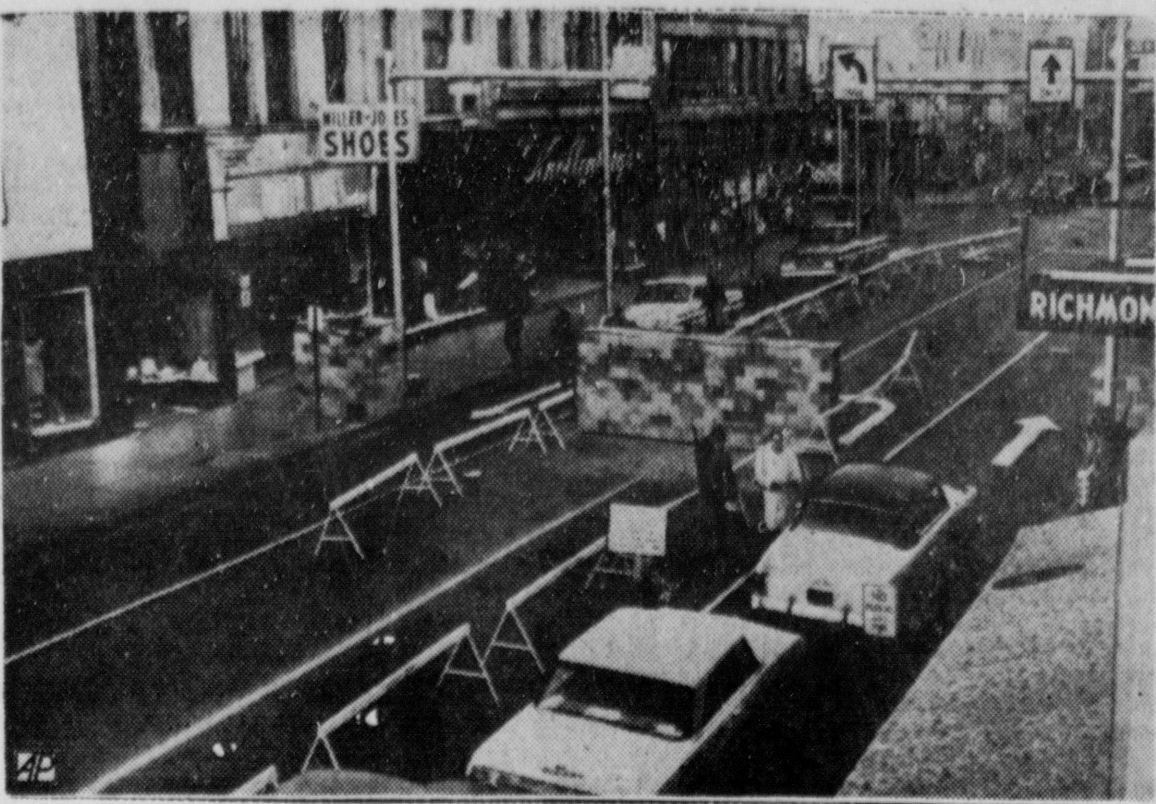

John Mazza, a retired detective, pointed at the car and said, "That's my car." He had reported it stolen.

It turned out that Butzler and Mazza have identical autos and Butzler's keys fit Mazza's car.

Berlin Wall Reproduced In Indiana

A concrete block version of the Berlin wall was erected across busy U.S. 40 in downtown Richmond, Ind., to force motorists to pause a moment to reflect on American freedom. Copies of the Bill of Rights are being handed out to passing motorists and pedestrians. A National Guard tank will knock down the wall today. Project was sponsored by Richmond Junior Chamber of Commerce. (AP Wirephoto)

LOWER COURTS ARE BACKED UP ON RULINGS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—State Superior Court has upheld lower courts in four cases, rejecting allegations of illegal search and seizure.

The rulings were handed down Thursday in cases involving Charles LaCamera, Ralph Stoner, Domenic Calvarese, and Joseph Dalton and Philip Miller.

LaCamera, convicted in Mercer County Court on numbers charges, claimed tickets found in his home were not specified in the search warrant. The court ruled the slips found were reasonably related to the numbers slips involved.

Reasonable relation was also cited in the case of Stoner, convicted of a Chambersburg robbery.

NCT PROPERTY RAISED
In the Stoner case and that of Dalton and Miller, convicted in Bucks County Court in the burglary of a Perkies club, the court said the claims of illegal search and seizure were not raised first in "proper post-conviction motions."

Calvarese, who was convicted in Philadelphia County Court of writing numbers, claimed arrest-

Editorial Page Conference Topic

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A day-long conference on newspaper editorial page operations was held Thursday.

About 30 newspaper editors attended the conference, which was sponsored by the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors.

A keynote speech was delivered by Millard C. Browne, editorial page editor of the Buffalo Evening News and chairman of the National Conference of Editorial Writers.

Others who talked included George A. Draut of the Harrisburg Patriot-News; Harry Pore of the Monessen Valley Independent; Paul Horn of the Sharon Herald; George Stewart of the Tarentum Valley Daily News; and Frank Hawkins of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

ing officers illegally seized slips which the officers said fell from Calvarese's mouth.

Judge Harold L. Ervin wrote in the decision that "... no search or seizure was actually being made by the officers at the time when this evidence was obtained. They were merely retrieving something which was in open view and which they had good reason to believe would constitute evidence."

Littlestown News

JUNIOR WOMEN PLAN HOLIDAY CLUB EVENTS

Several holiday activities were planned at the November meeting of the Junior Women's Club of Littlestown held on Wednesday evening in the social room of the Eagles Home, W. King St. The session opened with the salute to the flag and the club pledge repeated in unison. President, Mrs. Kent E. Deum, presided.

The annual Christmas dance for club members and guests will be held on Saturday night, December 15, in the Kingsdale Fire Hall, along the Littlestown-Taney town Rd. Tickets are $3 per couple. Music, decorations, refreshments and other general arrangements are in charge of the cheer committee, composed of Mrs. Joseph McMaster, chairman, Mrs. Conrad C. Hull, Mrs. J. Scott Zanger, Mrs. Daniel Barnes, Mrs. Glenn E. Crouse, Mrs. Francis I. Gerrick, Mrs. William Grove, Mrs. Bernard R. Kehil and Mrs. Earl A. Rebert.

The children of members will be entertained at a Christmas party again this year. The date, place, etc. will be announced by the following committee: Miss Betty Eckenrode, chairman, Mrs. Richard E. Barnes, Mrs. Wilmer Dutterer, Mrs. Larry Epley, Mrs. Robert Kress, Mrs. Charles Kump, Mrs. W. Richard Marshall and Mrs. Robert R. Reinman.

COOKIE EXCHANGE

A cookie exchange will be featured at the next regular meeting of the club on Wednesday, December 12, 8 p.m. at the Eagles. The hostess group will be the program committee, comprising Mrs. Paul F. Boller, chairman, Mrs. Dale Moore, Mrs. Donald Cook, Mrs. Jack E. Rebert, Mrs. Otto C. Seils, Mrs. A.

Richard Geisler, Mrs. William M. Ebaugh, Mrs. Clarence L. Schwartz Jr., Mrs. Herbert J. Sell and Miss Janet Phillips.

Routine reports were heard from Miss Shirley Leister, secretary, and Miss Nancy Oaster, treasurer. An informative letter was read from the American Cancer Society. Mrs. McMaster reported for the cheer committee that baby shoes had been sent to Mrs. Dean W. Bankert and flowers to Mrs. Jay R. Crouse. Mrs. Donald C. Feeser gave the report of the club buying out the House for the Hanover Community Players production the past Monday. It was announced that the Christmas shopping bus trip with the Silver Run Homemakers' has been cancelled.

The club will sponsor a "Roaring 20's" dance on Saturday, January 26, in the Blue Room of the Hanover American Legion Home. Music will be furnished by Rudy Carroll and his orchestra, Hanover. Tickets are limited to 100 couples. The local club will cooperate with the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs in the "Crusade for Seat Belts." It was announced that it will no longer be necessary for the club to provide transportation for local children to the clinic at Gettysburg.

ASSIGN NEW MEMBERS

The following new members were welcomed and installed by the president and appointed to these standing committees: Mrs. Donald Wolfe and Mrs. Harold O. Gerrick, membership committee; Mrs. David F. Crouse and Mrs. Freddie L. Dutterer, cheer committee; Mrs. Lester Tuttle and Mrs. Kenneth Lemmon, publicity; Mrs. Thomas Gouker, finance committee, and Mrs. Gary Mummert, fine arts committee. Three were reinstated into membership: Mrs. Clarence Hall, Mrs. John Jacobs and Mrs. Donald P. Sell.

"Your Home" was the theme of the program which followed the business. Mrs. Helen D. Tunison, Adams County home economist, showed slides and spoke on "Home Furnishings." She was introduced by Mrs. Robert Dillman, chairman of the fine arts committee, in charge of the evening's program. Refreshments were served to the 39 members in attendance by Mrs. Dillman, Mrs. Wilbur M. Sentz, Mrs. R. Kenneth Boyd, Mrs. Edward L. Warner, Mrs. Donald C. Feeser, Mrs. Marvin Morgret, Mrs. Robert B. Milheim, Mrs. Edward Runk and Mrs. Richard N. Greenholt. A coffee social preceded the meeting.

Christmas Party Planned For Dec. 11

Mrs. Estella Furlow was spiritual leader at the monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held at the church Tuesday evening. Her topic theme was "Thanks Be to God" and she was assisted by Mrs. Mary Byers. Mrs. Ruth Smith, president, presided. Mrs. Christine Jones conducted a special "Week of Prayer and Self Denial" service. The birthdays of Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Furlow and Mrs. Bertha Shull were observed. The guess package, donated by Mrs. Furlow, was won by Mrs. Bertha Shull. The session closed with the WSCS prayer. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Marian Study, Mrs. Audrey Osborne, Mrs. Grace Emerson, Mrs. Helen Gregg and Mrs. Esther Bechtel.

The annual Christmas party with exchange of gifts will be featured at the next meeting on Tuesday, December 11, at the church. The hostesses will be Mrs. Bertha Shull, Mrs. Helen Barton, Mrs. Violet Staveland and Mrs. Alice Koontz.

PLAN BANQUET AT ST. LUKE'S

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, met on Wednesday evening at the church, when final plans were made for the annual Christmas banquet and program for society members and guests. The affair will be held on Wednesday, December 12, at 6:30 p.m. in Grace Lutheran Church parish hall, Two Taverns. There will be a gift exchange among society secret sisters. General arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Hazel Chronister and Mrs. Junior T. Bittle; program, Mrs. George Schultz Jr., chairman, Mrs. William Bensel, Mrs. Elwood Breighner and Mrs. Percell L. Worley.

It was decided to send fruit baskets to the members of the congregation at Christmas, the project is in charge of Mrs. Guy McCabe. The secretary, Mrs. Percell Worley, gave her report. The business was in charge of Mrs. John H. Hartlaub, president. The guess box, given by Mrs. Guy McCabe, was received by Mrs. James Erb.

The program preceded the business and included the group singing of "All the Way the Savior Leads" and "Softly and Tenderly," accompanied by Mrs. Larry Crouse; Scripture and prayer, Mrs. Fred W. Hartlaub; readings, Mrs. R. Glenn Snyder and Mrs. Atlee Breighner; vocal solo, "How Great Thou Art," Mrs. Glenn Snyder, with Mrs. Crouse at the piano; reading, "Rainbow," Mrs. Fred Hartlaub. The birthdays of Mrs. Roy Bittle, Mrs. Parr R. Breighner, Mrs. Atlee Breighner, Mrs. Howard Cook, Mrs. James Erb, Mrs. Fred Hartlaub, Mrs. Clair Snyder and Mrs. Columbus Schneider were noted. A group game, conducted by Mrs. Atlee Breighner, was won by Mrs. John Hartlaub.

18 CREWMEN MISSING AFTER BOAT CAPSIZES

By BERNARD BROWN

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — Rescue planes and ships searched the stormy Atlantic northeast of Bermuda today for 18 missing crewmen who abandoned the Greek freighter Captain George as flames ate their way toward a cargo of explosives.

Coast Guard messages said seven members of the 25-man crew were picked up by freighters standing by in the gale, but the other 18 were tossed into the 45-foot high waves when their lifeboat capsized. They disappeared in the darkness.

Coast Guard amphibians, flying in relays, dropped flares through the night in the vicinity of the still burning ship.

The amphibians reported the ship was still afloat late Thursday night.

The U.S. submarine Torsk took over the search from two Liberian-flag ships which picked up the seven survivors, the tanker Virginia and the freighter Trinity Navigator. The tanker and the freighter left the scene because of high seas and gale winds.

The Coast Guard cutter Mendota also was steaming toward the area.

The 18 missing crewmen were reported wearing life jackets and the water was a warm 72 degrees. But visibility was only about two miles.

SHIP CAPSIZES

As the search went on for survivors from the Captain George, another victim of the gale, the disabled 65-foot schooner Curlew capsized five miles outside Bermuda's St. George Harbor.

The six men aboard the two-master schooner were rescued by the U.S. Navy ship Compass Island which had escorted it from a point 90 miles north of Bermuda. One of the crew was reported to have suffered broken ribs. The schooner was en route from Essex, Conn., to the Virgin Islands when it was disabled early Thursday.

RIFLE SHOTS NEEDLES

WINSLOW, Ariz. (AP) — The Winslow City Council has purchased a rifle to shoot dogs.

The weapon doesn't fire bullets, however. It shoots needles filled with sedatives. After 15 to 30 minutes, the dog catcher has little trouble catching his prey.

SAYS COUNTY IS

1,235 farm and home visits was made by the agriculture extension agents during the year.

The report of Mrs. Helen Tunison, extension home economist, showed 418 in the 18 organized home economics groups of the county. Attendance at 195 meetings held by the groups totaled 3,067. She added that "some of the trends that are a severe challenge to the home economics program are more women working and more working mothers, low median income, large families, school drop-outs, early marriages and more older people in the population. Growth in the program may be attributed to the consideration of these problems and planning programs to meet the county situation."

Members of the 34 4-H clubs of the county carried out projects during the year, according to reports. Attendance at 318 4-H meetings during the year was 6,247. Twenty-six senior extension meetings were held with attendance of 649.

The county agents noted that this year "many 4-H members brought honor to the county," including the team which was the first from the county to win the state judging competition. In addition three members won first places in state demonstration competitions.

ELECT 6 DIRECTORS

Four directors were re-elected and two new directors were named to succeed present members. Re-elected were Joseph A. Stoner, East Berlin R. 2, currently president of the executive committee; Myles Stanner, Aspers R. 1; Adam Lobaugh, Aspers R. 1, and Mrs. Ralph Hikes, York Springs R. 2.

Mrs. Charles Slusser, Littlestown R. 2, was elected to succeed Mrs. Charles Lott, while Charles Klingner, New Oxford R. 2, was named to succeed Paul Lerew, York Springs R. 1.

The board will meet in the near future to reorganize for the coming year. Paul Pitzer was chairman of the nominating committee.

SEE DEMONSTRATION

Miss Barbara Johnson, Gettysburg R. D., who won the state 4-H competition and will represent the state at Miami in national competition, presented the demonstration which won her the honor: "Anytime Is Salad Time."

William Cochran, assistant extension director of Pennsylvania State University, described the development of the "land grant colleges" as agricultural centers and held that "we believe that the land grant colleges and the extension service, through its program of experimentation and instruction and help by the county agents has had something to do with our nation's enviable position in agriculture in the world."

C. R. Zarfoss, vice president of the railway company, who will be present at the dinner, is co-operating with the commission in the Lincoln events and will also collaborate in some of the July events.

"Details of the program are being withheld until the dinner following the meeting of the commission," spokesmen for the organizations sponsoring the dinner said.

"The dinner is the 'kick-off' which will activate Gettysburg's Centennial year. Nothing can be more essential to a truly magnificent Centennial year that will add to the stature of Gettysburg as an historic shrine than the enthusiasm and unity of purpose that will be evident at the 'kick-off' dinner on Tuesday night," it was added.

TYSON TALKS

He said the 4-H program and other programs "have done much to help our youth and our older farmers see much of the nation under circumstances that made their trip most meaningful."

Kenneth Tyson, Gardner R. 2, showed slides he took in Europe. Showing management of forests in Europe, he said that "in Europe the need to conserve forest resources became apparent long before they did here, for the simple reason that Europe's forests were rapidly disappearing while we still had many great forests. When we became interested in forestry, the basic forestry management principles, which are still used today, came from Europe."

"Similarly the expansion of population in relatively small areas of land led the Europeans early to realize the importance of land use. We are just becoming interested in land use and we can learn much from Europe because they have been working at it for years." Germany, he said has an "agricultural advisory service" somewhat similar to the extension service here.

The New Chester Homemakers Club provided refreshments following the meeting.

Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan, but that he had adopted a "more flexible" position toward U.S. demands for inspection to insure compliance with the Soviet pledge to remove offensive weapons from Cuba.

The sources said Castro had agreed in principle to make his points a separate issue rather than push them in the face of the U.S. demand for on-site inspection. There was no indication, however, that Castro was showing any tendency to withdraw his opposition to foreign inspectors in Cuba.

There was no word of any agreement on U.S. demands that the Soviet Union withdraw the two dozen or so jet bombers it sent to Cuba. The United States contends they are offensive weapons capable of carrying nuclear warheads.

'63 Chevrolet Trucks

THEY'VE ALWAYS BEEN TOUGH BUT NEVER STRONGER THAN NOW!

You can be sure that new engines, frames, suspensions that licked Mexico's Baja* Run will work for you long, faithfully and at traditionally low Chevrolet cost.

A Chevrolet truck has always been a sound investment because of its quality construction. This is what makes it give you an honest day's work every day at very low cost and—when you are finished with it—return more resale money to your happy pocket.

This year stronger frames, engines that can pull more, and practically tailor-made suspension systems make Chevrolet trucks a better buy than ever. If you're in the market now, we'd welcome the chance to tell you about, and let you drive, the new trucks. Just give us a call.

JFK CHOOSES HERTER FOR KEY U.S. POST

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has selected Christian A. Herter, a secretary of state in the Eisenhower administration, to command U.S. negotiations aimed at slashing foreign trade barriers. In choosing him Thursday, Kennedy said the 67-year-old Republican "will be directly responsible for preparing the proposed objectives and strategies for negotiations and for directing those negotiations while they are in process." Thus the Paris-born Herter will have the key role in directing the historic trade expansion measure enacted by the last Congress—an act Kennedy called "a vital new weapon" for the cause of freedom.

TARIFF CUTS

The trade act authorizes 50 per cent cuts in most tariffs and elimination of those that are chiefly involved in trade between the United States and the European Common Market (France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands).

Kennedy said Herter will be "one of the top policy officials of the United States government in shaping and achieving our international objectives in the commercial, trade and economic fields." Herter, a former congressman and governor of Massachusetts who served as secretary of state from 1959 until former President Dwight D. Eisenhower left office, will report directly to the President.

The Senate will have to approve his appointment when Congress reconvenes in January.

The title of the position—which will pay up to $27,500 a year—is special representative for trade negotiations of the United States.

Herter, whose home is in Millis, Mass., has been serving as chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs Personnel under sponsorship of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Orrtanna

MRS. LUTHER WETZEL
ORRTANNA — A bake sale, sponsored by the Margaret Donaldson Bible Class of the Orrtanna Methodist Sunday School, will be held today in the church hall.

The group met recently at the home of Mrs. Ruth Deardorff with 10 members and a guest present. The meeting opened with a meditation, "John Wesley Rules," followed with prayer by the president, Mrs. Ruth Donaldson. Bible reading was given by the hostess.

A cookie sale is planned for December 17 and 18. Members voted to give $100 for current expenses and $100 to the building fund.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party December 12 at 7:30 p.m. with the teacher, Mrs. Tressler, as hostess at her home.

The guess box containing donated by Emma Jane Riggall was won by Mrs. Daisy Deardorff. The sum of $1.10 was received for it.

Mrs. Mary Tressler spent several days this week in York at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas, and son, Mark.

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Six volunteer firemen were killed and 26 injured Thursday by falling scaffolding. The firemen had just put out a fire in a downtown building under construction when the scaffolding collapsed.
